A BUNCH OF LAUGHS COMING

"Little Johnny Jones" comes to the Steward Thursday, December 17, when doubtless the legion of followers of that most popular of musical comedies will wear the smile that will not be eradicated, for of course no snigger, snapper, or mere rib-tickling play has visited the classic precincts of this village for many a day. Guy M. Chan has succeeded in evolving a musical comedy with a real plot, and there is just enough love interest in "Little Johnny Jones" to keep the folks who lean towards the sentimental side of life in a delightfully pre-occupied condition.

Little "Johnny Jones" Himself.

ISLAND CITY NEWS

C. L. Morley gave us an interesting address on temperance last Wednesday night. Several of our people attended the Elks' memorial services at La Grande Sunday. Herman Clark, president of the La Grande Epworth league and Miss Ora Cates, district president, gave interesting talks at our devotional service Sunday night. Morton Kiddle, wife and daughter, returned from a visit to Portland Monday morning. Prof. W. L. Shurts is detained from the high school on account of measles. The Union Sunday school is preparing a program to be given in the school Christmas eve. A large concourse of friends attended the funeral of W. G. Peach, an old pioneer of this valley in the Island church Wednesday, at 11 o'clock. The relatives and friends have the sympathy of the entire community. Class No. 8 and the young teachers of the Sunday school, enjoyed a social time Friday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Ed Kiddle.

FINE SKATING PREVAILS. Large Stretch at Perry is Glarry Like Glass and Also Safe. Seldom in the years past has skating been more perfect at Perry than it is this week. From the dam to the first bridge, the ice is safe and excellent. Last evening nearly all Perry was out on the ice, and occasionally a group go there from La Grande. If snow defers its arrival, and the temperature remains about as today, there will be fine skating for many days to come.
