RIVALRY LET LOOSE.

Basketball Game Tonight.

Class spirit will run rife, and the public will be interested, in a feat of sport tonight at the skating rink, commencing at 7:45. The issue at of basketball, between the various classes of the high school, and on the outcome, from a public standpoint, is hinged much interest. The winning aggregation will in all probability represent the local school in future interscholastic contests. From a school point of view there is even greater interest in the coming contest as one

HARRY PROCTOR, May Park.

The above is a delightful letter received yesterday by officers of the Park association. Thus, May Park is interested in a park for La Grande, and children of that vicinity are willing to aid the children of this city.

Everywhere in La Grande today, amid he hurry and bustle for Christmas presents, can be heard that whisper from children, "Save pennies for the park." The children that give the pennies, as a rule, are too young to ully comprehend what a great lift, a lew pennies from many children will be to the striving park promoters.

The accumulation of coppers even on the eve of Christmas is surprising to
