...munning on three sides of it. This will afford an opportunity for beautiful grounds surrounding the building when it is completed.

The rumor was current on the street today that one of J. E. Foley's lots, adjoining on the east, was also included, but Mr. Foley affirmed that it had been offered if necessary, but the special agent, after taking the measurements of Mr. Berry's property stated that tract contained sufficient area and additional ground would not be necessary.

The special agent informed Mr. Foley while here that in his opinion the government would erect a building about 40x60 feet, so situated that a few years later when the town became larger, another wing could be added.

On the Retired List.

W. J. Henry, foreman of The Observer job department, is on the sick list this week, and as a result The Observer job department is somewhat disabled, but as Mr. Henry is able to come to the office and keep his eye on the work, things are not as bad as they might be. The same high standard of work is being turned out as usual, but not at the same rapid rate. If our customers will bear with us for the short delay, we will soon be able to handle the work with the old-time vigor.

State Senator Dead.

North Yakima, Dec. 15.—State Senator Walter J. Reed, a resident of this place, who has been ill for some time, died here last evening. The deceased is survived by a widow, brother and four sisters.

ed just by this court that you be confined in the penitentiary for a period of two years," concluded the judge.

Will Appeal Case.

Instantly Attorney Cochran addressed the court with motions for a slight stay in commitment that an appeal to the supreme court could be perfected and filed. This was granted.

Officer is the man for whom extradition papers were issued and the sheriff sent thousands of miles to make the arrest. The original charge against his were either dismissed or otherwise disposed of, but since coming here for trial, the prosecution produced the necessary evidence in a new case.

CRAZY AND MEAN.

Sought to Kill Woman Whose Love He Thought He Had Lost.

San Francisco, Dec. 15.—Angered because his fiancée, Mrs. Sadie Campbell of Seattle, had threatened to leave him, Fred W. Vansteekin, of Victoria, B. C., shot her in the back last night. The shooting took place at their home in this city. Although the woman was seriously wounded, she was able to know her would-be murderer down with a chair and severely beat him with her fists and finally hold him down, until the police could be notified and come to her assistance. The woman is 23 years of age and was divorced nine months ago at Seattle. The couple met at Victoria and came to this city together.
