While They Last

Ill Health is More Expensive Than Any Cure.

This country is now filled with people who migrate across the continent in all directions seeking that which gold cannot buy. Nine-tenths of them are suffering from throat and lung trouble or chronic catarrh resulting from neglected colds, and spending fortunes vainly trying to regain lost health. Could every sufferer but undo the past and cure that first neglected cold, all this sorrow, pain, anxiety and expense could have been avoided. Chamberlain's cough remedy is famous for its cures of colds, and can always be depended upon. Use it and the more serious diseases may be avoided. For sale by all good dealers.

How One Doctor Successfully Treats Pneumonia.

"In treating pneumonia," says Dr. W. J. Smith of Sanders, Ala., "the only remedy I use for the lungs is Chamberlain's cough remedy. While, of course, I would treat other symptoms with different medicines, I have used this remedy many times in my medical practice and have yet failed to find a case where it has not controlled the trouble. I have used it myself, as has also my wife for coughs and colds repeatedly, and I most willingly and cheerfully recommend it as superior to any other cough remedy to my knowledge." For sale by all good dealers.

BIG SWINDLE CORRECTED.

Banner Swindle of the Northwest Has Been Ferreted Down at Pendleton.

The great Idaho horse-fraud case is settled. Several of the horses have been returned to the original owners, and Receiver W. L. Thompson has been discharged, relates the Pendleton East Oregonian.

Decree, determining the case, was entered this morning by Judge H. J. Bean in the circuit court. It came as the result of a compromise based upon the evidence taken in the case in the circuit court yesterday afternoon and was the "finis" written to one of the most sensational chapters in the greatest swindle perpetrated in the northwest.

According to the decree, the plaintiffs in the suit, A. C. Ruby, M. C. Metz, J. E. Mason, A. P. Miller, J. H. Edunds and Shindler & Hogan, were owners of the animals sold by Ferris, Sheldon and the Lamb Bros., to N. W. Thompson of Boise as the Idaho men had obtained possession of them by worthless notes and through fraud, the title had never passed. The decree also stipulates that N. W. Thompson was not a party to the swindle but purchased the animals believing them to be the property of the Idaho men who had so shrewdly secured their possession.

Not only is Thompson absolved by the decree from all accusations of fraud in the matter, but he is to be pai certain sums of money by various plaintiffs to cover a portion of the expenses to which he was put in connection with gathering up the horses, etc. On the other hand, Ruby, Metz, Mason, Miller, Edmunds and Shindler & Hogan are to receive from Thompson the animals owned by them and held by Receiver Thompson in this city until this morning.

As soon as the receivership was set aside and the animals returned to their owners, arrangements were made by Mr. Thompson to take the other animals held in this city on to the Palo Alto stock farm at Boise, while the other owners are arranging to return with their animals to their respective homes.

Al G. Barnes Badly Injured.

Last night while the lion act was being performed at the Bakeronian, the black bear and one of the lions became entangled in a confab and Mr. Barnes entered the cage for the purpose of separating the animals. In this he was successful, and then rewarded the bear with a lump of sugar. He then commanded him to take his place on the shelf intended for him. On leaving the bear it followed Mr. Barnes and turning to it he said: "What do you want?" The animal, thinking that his raised hand meant that he was to be further rewarded, reached for his hand and bit it through, lacerating the hand and wrist. The wound is very painful and when seen last night, Mr. Barnes was in great agony. He had called Dr. Patterson, who had given relief, and he said to the Democrat that of all the wounds he had ever received from various beasts, this was the most excruciating. —Baker City Democrat.
