'Fantana' Tonight. This merry tuncful comic opera, which has delighted audiences in the east for the past four years, will be the offering at the Steward Wednesday night. So much has been written in eastern papers and magazines about this Shubert production of 'Fantana' that there is little doubt but that a capacity house will greet its presentation in La Grande.

The company is undoubtedly an excellent one, for it is headed by many clever artists who are well known here, including Teddy Webb, of 'The Alaskan,' remembered for her excellent work in 'The Gingerbread Man' and many other clever people.

The plot of 'Fantana' is non-essential to its enjoyment, although the story has really more thread to it than is usually found in most musical comedies. In Montrey, in the Mikado's realm and on shipboard the mythical plot of 'Fantana' has its setting.

The three scenes are full of action and one amusing situation is followed quickly by another. What really attracts is the jingle of the music, the smart fashion of its production and the fascinating antics of the comedians.

Teddy Webb, with his inimitable line of cockneyism, as Hawkins the valet, has evidently found an extremely congenial part to play.

In short to those who enjoy a right good laugh and a clever, picturesque performance, 'Fantana' is highly recommended.

The Scenic. Tonight patrons of the Scenic will have an opportunity to see the Irish and Dutch in new turns. This comedy team has won the admiration of Scenic patrons to such an extent that the team is styled the second Waiters and Murray team. Their laugh-making abilities are such that those who have seen them once simply cannot resist the desire to laugh, when the merry team first appears on the stage.

The program at the Pastime this evening will be the same as last night. The pictures are all good, and last night three large audiences expressed their appreciation of them by long and hearty applause.

The illustrated songs will be changed this evening and Mr. Ferrin has something special for the patrons of the Pastime. Remember, the Pastime theater is open every night excepting Sunday.

Christmas Rite Service at St. Peter's. The Feast of the Holy Nativity will be duly celebrated at St. Peter's church on Christmas morning at 10:30. The offering will be as usual, for the aged and infirm clergy fund. Everybody cordially invited to come and worship. The Sunday school will have its tree on Holy Innocents' Day, Monday next, at 6:30 p. m.

'Angels From the Realms of Joy.' Venite. Gloria Patri. Te Deum. Jubilate. 'Gloria Fidei.' Gloria Tibi. 'Hark, the Herald Angels Sing.' Offertory anthem, 'Alleluia, Alleluia.' Doxology. Sanctus. 'Bread of the World.' 'Gloria in Excelsis.' 'O Little Town of Bethlehem.'
