The Scenic.

Last night business at the Scenic passed all previous records. Fletcher and LaPirrie put on a new turn, and it certainly pleased the audience. Miss Zetta Lovell, in her song and dance act did some new work and as usual pleased the entire house. Patrons of the Scenic should remember that this week closes the engagement of all these clever people and that Monday evening new faces will be seen. The Gilbert sisters, who are now playing in Boise, will be here and Brought and Mason will also be here direct from Seattle. Both of these teams are said to be exceptionally good. The pictures for this evening are bright and snappy. The first number will show some beautiful stage settings, and the costumes worn by the actors will appeal to the eye of every lady in the theater.

Many Attend Christ-Mass.

A good congregation attended the Christ-Mass at St. Peter's, yesterday morning. The sacred edifice was very prettily decorated with red fir, Oregon grape and some holly, while designs in white and red relieved the monotony of the evergreen. The musical portion of the service was admirably rendered by the choir, which had been practicing long and faithfully. The sermon was on "The Witness of God in His Son," the text being taken from Heb.
1:1-2. The offerings, as has been the custom for some years past, were given to the Aged and Infirm Clergy fund.
Altogether the service proved an inspiring one and those attending carried away with them a true Christmas blessing, which made the day for them what it ought to be; namely, a Holy day.

MORMONS WIN GAME. High School Juniors Lack Accuracy and Lost Fast Game.

By superior passing from a standpoint of accuracy, and by far better goal throwing, the M. I. A. basketball team Thursday night defeated the champions of the high school, the Juniors. The game was fast, snappy and classy, but void of rough playing.
The spectators got their money's worth all the time, notwithstanding that the score was 22 to 12 in favor of the Mormons. The Mormon team is going to play a Cove quintet in the near future.
