SEEKING ONE MORE SCALP

Stiffened and sore, but able to splash around in the mud, a near-full line-up of football sharks were out yesterday afternoon for the first practice since the contest here Christmas day. Few of the players show ear-marks of the recent contest and when next Friday finds them on the Pendleton gridiron ready to take the same aggregation into camp again, it will be a team, fully reascituated from the effects of last week's game. Every evening between now and the time for departure Thursday night, will find the squad out limbering up and removing some of the faults that were prevalent Friday. Coach Wall believes he will be able to send a team on to Pendleton that will be much stronger than anything which has ever fought for La Grande in the past.

Elrod, the center rush, who did commendable work here Friday, will not be able to practice this week, as he is visiting friends in Washington. He will be at Pendleton, however, next Friday. Archie Bacon has gone to Portland, and consequently he will not be in the line-up next Friday. These vacancies will be filled during the week to the best possible advantage, and the team will return Friday evening, if present indications stand for aught, with another scalp dangling at its belt.

W. R. C. ELECT

The officers of Oliver P. Morton Post No. 37, G. A. R., and of the W. R. C., same post, will be installed jointly on January 23. Last Saturday afternoon both orders held their annual election and the outcome of the balloting in the G. A. R. circles, was reported Saturday afternoon by The Observer. The W. R. C. officers chosen at that time follow:

Mrs. Jullous Roesch, president; Mrs. Maggie Harmon, senior vice; Mrs. S. B. Williamson, junior vice; Mrs. Morgan, conductress; Mrs. Rachel Worstell, treasurer; Mrs. Jones, chaplain, and Mrs. Burnett, guard. The secretary is to be appointed.

I. W. Faulk was chosen commander of the G. A. R. Saturday afternoon, making the eighth time he has been placed at the head of the local post, more chutes.
