ISLAND CITY NEWS ITEMS

HOLIDAY PERIOD AT SUBURB WAS A BUSY ONE.

Social Parties and Skating Parties Occupy Time of Suburbans During the Yuletide Days—Leap Year Party Popular with Suburbans. Personal Items of Interest.

Island City, Jan. 6.—(Special.)—Clyde Kiddle returned to Portland Sunday morning to resume work in Holmes Business college.

Rev. Deal gave us a most interesting sermon last week, appropriate to the new year.

Charles Hunter, wife and son arrived Sunday night for a visit with home folks.

Miss Stella Hunter returned Sunday night to Seattle, where she will resume work in the university.

Island City was quite busy socially during the holidays, many dinners and parties being given.

Miss Jessie Foster's leap year party given in honor of the Misses Stella Hunter and Netta Kiddle, was one of the pleasant affairs of vacation. The young ladies did the honors as escorts in a most creditable manner, with the one exception of being late, causing the young men considerable anxiety until the fair ones appeared. One of the features of the evening were the written descriptions of the young ladies by the young gentlemen, which were read aloud, to the amusement of all. Music was dispensed throughout the evening and an elaborate lunch was served, thus ending a very enjoyable holiday party.

Miss Kathleen Thomas entertained her young friends at a watch party New Year's eve at her pleasant home in the east part of town, which was one of the most successful social events of the holiday season. Music, guessing contests and the selling of bachelors before the old year passed into history, were some of the enjoyable features of the evening's entertainment. Dainty refreshments were served by hostess and even after the new year had been ushered in, the guests lingered, so delightful had been the occasion of their meeting together.

Mrs. Henry Spence of Wallowa, was here several days during the holidays with old acquaintances and friends.

There were two very pleasant skating parties given by the young people through vacation. This excellent recreation has many devotees in our little town.

Miss Sarah Chain returned from Union Sunday, where she spent the Christmas vacation with Mrs. Frank Bidwell.

Lost its Whistle.

The engine pulling local No. 8 from Portland yesterday afternoon lost its whistle near Foster and soon all the steam escaped from the boiler, leaving the train helpless on the track. There being no third-class passenger along who could be forced to get off and push, the stranded train was towed into the city by No. 2. Both trains arrived a few minutes late.—Pendleton Tribune.
