AMUSEMENT GALORE AT LOCAL THEATRES

Great Divide, Ross & Shaw, Gilbert Sisters, Brott & Mason Babes in Toyland

"Babes in Toyland."
 At the Grand last night that mirthful and beautiful extravaganza, "Babes in Toyland," made a positive and distinct hit. That the show, though not new to Toronto theatergoers, has lost none of its popularity was clearly proven by the large house and the unstinted applause that greeted its initial performance. The company is a very capable one and all worked hard to make the offering the success it certainly is. Eddie Redway (Alan), Miss Anna Wilkes (Jane), and Miss Stanley (Contrary Mary) carried off the honors of the evening. They are backed up by an exceptionally vivacious chorus, who dance and march beautifully, and, what is more, have good voices and know how to use them. The "March of the Toys" was the big hit, followed closely by the songs "I Can't Do That Sum," "Barney O'Flynn" and "Rock-a-by Baby." The production is well staged and fairly sparkles with good, clean humor and ludicrous situations. There will be the usual matinees on Wednesday and Saturday.—Toronto Globe.

"Babes in Toyland" appear at the Steward opera house January 19.
"The Great Divide" Here Soon.
 The "Great Divide," the most striking dramatic success the American stage has seen for a quarter of a century, will be played at the Steward on Saturday, January 16. This news will be received with delight by our play-lovers, for no drama of recent years has attracted as much attention as "The Great Divide." For nearly two entire seasons it attracted crowded houses to the Princess and Daly's theater, New York, being presented in the Metropolis nearly 600 times. The road tour is being directed by Henry Miller, whose name is inseparably linked with the success of the play. The films are all French make.

The cast was selected by this famous actor-manager with great care, and the production is an exact duplicate of the New York original. "The Great Divide" has been pronounced by many critics the "long-awaited great American play." No other drama has so well reflected the manhood, the freedom, the honesty, and the indomitable spirit characteristic of the people of our great country. With the first two acts laid in Arizona and the third in Massachusetts, there is offered in contrast two of the most vigorous and progressive sections of the land. The story of the play represents a conflict between the free, untrammelled spirit of the west, and traditions and conventionalities of the east. It tells the romance of an eastern woman and a western man, whose wooing was strange and whose life together was dramatic. Written by William Vaughn Moody, the foremost of America's younger poets, "The Great Divide" possesses literary qualities such as are very rare in plays that are satisfactory from an acting standpoint. The story is told in unctuous, picturesque prose, illuminated by a glowing and virile imagination. That "The Great Divide" is to be seen here so soon after its New York triumph is a matter upon which our theatergoers are to be warmly congratulated.

The Scenic.
 "A Negro's Dilemma" is the title of a four part sketch at the Scenic tonight. The dope is good and full of laughs in which each of the vaudeville stars have a chance to shine. New films as announced in the house ad in this issue, are to be put on this evening. "Some of the Dangerous Members of the Boston Menagerie" is the real funny film, while the others are interesting and entertaining as well.

At the Pastime.
 Tonight Ross and Shaw will put on a musical comedy which will keep the house in an uproar. This team is the best that can be had in their line of business. There will be an entire change in the pictures and songs tonight. Mr. Ferrin will sing the illustrated song, "The Summer Time's the Time." The feature film, The Gallant Guardsman, is a beautiful colored film made by Pathe Freres, and only released 9 days from the factory, in fact, the films the Pastime is getting now are new films, guaranteed not to be over 12 days old. The comedies are "Bill Jones' New Year's Resolutions." This comedy picture story revolves around a married man with too much mother-in-law and an exacting wife, he makes the usual New Year's resolutions. He swears he will stop smoking, drinking, poker and swears to arise early in the morning to kiss his mother-in-law. Another comedy, "Who is Smoking That Rope," will keep you laughing.

Notice to Dog Owners.
 Notice is hereby given to all dog owners that the 1909 dog tax tags are here in the hands of the city recorder, and that on and after January 1, 1909, all dogs found without said tax tags will be taken up and disposed of according to city ordinance.

A Sprained Ankle.
 As a rule a man will feel well satisfied if he can hobble around on crutches in two or three weeks after spraining his ankle, and it is often two or three months before he is fully recovered. This is an unnecessary loss of time, as by applying Chamberlain's Liniment, as directed, a cure may as a rule be effected less than one week's time, and in many cases within three days. Sold by all good dealers.
