SNOW PLOW READY.

Enemy of Snowflakes Still in La Grande, But Ready for Use.

The rotary snow plow which is quartered here is fired up and ready for use at a moment's notice, though at this time it has not been sent out. It is anticipated that if it is the direction will be to the east. It is seldom that the O. R. & N. has resorted to this mode of coping with nature and averting tie-ups in traffic.

The flanger was sent west last evening about 10 o'clock. General Superintendent Buckley and Superintendent Campbell happened to be in La Grande last evening when the call for the flanger came, and with Engineer Brown at the throttle an engine was sent west at high speed to help clear the way for No. 2, which did not arrive in La Grande until 6 o'clock this morning. The path was made comparatively easy for No. 6 which followed in the wake of the evening train by four hours.

FUNERAL TOMORROW.

Interment of Aged Lady Will Take Place from Family Home.

The funeral of Mrs. Helen D. Tuckey who died yesterday at the home of her son, C. Tuckey, will take place from the family home, 1202 Second street, tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock. Rev. S. W. Seemann officiating. Interment will be in Masonic cemetery.

Mrs. Tuckey for several years suffered with rheumatism, but was active, with exceptions when the attacks were most severe. Yesterday she was in her usual health, beyond a slight cold, and was up and about as usual, and a few moments prior to her death, was sitting by the stove. Heart failure was the cause of her death. Mrs. Tuckey came here from Michigan last July and during these few months made many friends by her kind and sympathetic manner. Her husband died two years ago this month.
