A Great American Play.
"The Great Divide," William Vaughn Moody's extraordinarily successful play, which has been declared by many critics to set a new high mark in American drama, will appear at the Steward Saturday, January 16.

Simple announcement of this fact will surely create a "run" on the box office, and an influx of mail orders for seats, for this widely heralded play it is as big in conception and broad in treatment as the picturesque portion of the far west in which the first two acts are laid—the Rocky mountains, the great divide between our east and west. The different roles portrayed by the two leading players are most human and sincere, yet highly dramatic withal. A superb company has been provided, and the production is precisely the same that won such un-and absolutely new list of acts. It is unnecessary to introduce this well known team to the scenic patrons, as during their former visit they won for themselves recognition from all. The pictures are especially strong tonight. The Roman Idyle is all hand-colored and the subject is well selected. The International Automobile race at Savannah, Ga., is over 1000 feet long

A Horrible Hold-up.
"About 10 years ago my brother was 'held up' in his work, health and happiness by what was believed to be hopeless consumption," writes W. R. Lipscomb, of Washington, N. C. "He took all kinds of remedies and treatment from several doctors, but found no help till he used Dr. King's New Discovery and was wholly cured by drawing the jury list, which task consumed the greater part of the session."

FOR SALE—Cash, contract or trade, two double corner lots, cleared and level; and small furnished house. A "snap." See John Fee, 1806 C. avenue, at once.

Fish cooked in a hundred different ways will be served in the Alaska building at the Seattle exposition next year. This will be done to demonstrate the value of Alaska fish as a food product.
