A Horrible Hold-up.

"About 10 years ago my brother was 'held up' in his work, health and happiness by what was believed to be hopeless consumption," writes W. R. Lipscomb, of Washington, N. C. "He took all kinds of remedies and treatment from several doctors, but found no help till he used Dr. King's New Discovery and was wholly cured by its drawing the jury list, which task consumed the greater part of the session."

Cured of a Severe Attack of Bronchitis by Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

"On October 18th, last, my little 3-year-old daughter contracted a severe cold which resulted in a bad case of bronchitis," says Mrs. W. G. Gibson, Lexington, Ky. "She lost the power of speech completely and was a very sick child. Fortunately we had a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in the house and gave it to her according to the printed directions. On the second day she was a great deal better, and on the fifth day, October 23d, she was entirely well of her cold and bronchitis, which I attribute to this splendid medicine. I recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy unreservedly as I have found it the surest, safest and quickest cure for colds, both for children and adults, of any I have ever used." For sale by all good dealers.

THEATRICAL ANNOUNCEMENTS

"The Great Divide," is generally acknowledged to be the greatest drama of western life yet written in the history of the American stage. It tells of the strange wooing of an eastern woman and an Arizona prospector, representing the conflict between the free untrammelled spirit of the west, and the rigid conventional and uncompromising traditions of the east. The play possesses great literary quality as well as wealth of clever di-

Pastime's Strong Bill.

With an orchestra in the pit and good actors on the stage, with attractive films to mix in between, the Pastime theater last evening gave a high class entertainment to its patrons. In the "Tiny Richards" the house has a strong feature. The dancers are diminutive in size, but large in capabilities. They work together like clockwork. The show is clean—cleaner than the average—as clog dancing and Serious Accident.

William Getchell, the veteran railroader and pioneer resident of this city, received a letter from his son, A. C. Getchell, who is now railroading on the Great Northern, running out of Hilyard, Wash., stating that while braking he was sent out to flag a train and was left by his train. At this time the weather was very cold, and he was compelled to walk to the station, which required about three at the Model restaurant, Fred Maxwell took advantage of the opportunity to take possession of their miniature cutter which, during this "spell of winter," does duty for a baby carriage. When Mr. and Mrs. Fitzgerald had finished their repast they discovered their loss and at once notified the officers. This morning the missing cutter was located at the home of the said Maxwell and his arrest promptly followed.

This morning before Justice Stewart, Maxwell admitted taking the sleigh, but said he had no intention of stealing the same, but simply thought he was playing a practical joke. The attempt at fun will cost the said Maxwell the sum of $25 or 12 days in jail. At present he is laughing over the matter from the other side of his face while playing checkers with his nose in the county jail.

Comedian Arrives.

Phil Seltz, the German comedian, is now in La Grande and completes the personnel of the vaudeville artists at hours hard walking in a raging storm. When he reached the station he discovered that both his feet were badly frozen, and it was necessary to take him to the hospital at Hilyard. At the time he was making this nerve training walk, the mercury was down to 27 below zero. It is a wonder that he did not perish. He writes that he is resting easy now and is receiving all the attention possible, and expects to ultimately recover from his injuries.
