EIGHT PAGES.

EVENING OBSERVER, LA GRANDE, OREGON. THURSDAY, JANUARY 14, 1909.

PAGE THREE.

HOUSE STEWARD'S OPERA THEATRICAL ANNOUNCEMENTS B. H. STEWARD, Proprietor Saturday, January 16th what the Press Henry Miller What the Press of the Country Laughs Galore. Earthquake Anniversary. bert-Gren MacDonough operatic ex- (Seats for "The Great Divide." of the Country The spie of seats for the engage- travaganza, which will be presented at The trouble with the Scenic theater | Kingston, Jamaica, Jan. 14 .- Mement of "The Great Divide," which the Steward Tuesday, January 19, has during the present turn is that much morial services in the churches of Say: Say: comes to the Steward Saturday, Jan- made one of the most pronounced hits of the time the audience cannot keep Kingston today marked the second anuary 16, began this morning. This su- that has even been scored by a musi- up with the continual string of witti- niversary of the great earthquake of " Simply supperb." -N. Y. Herald Absolute truingh "- N.Y. Sun. perb production is under the direction cal play for a number of seasons, clams that come from the monologue January 14, 1907, which destroyed a The of Henry Miller, who presents an un- The great drawing power of the piece and dialogue artists. Seits, the Ger- large portion of the city. The anniusually distinguished company of tai- seems to lie in its very witty lines and man comedian, bubbles over with versary finds Kingston practically re-"A sweeping success." "A great success." -N. T Tribunc. ented players in this truly great excellent music. There is no denying, mirth. He has a monologue of Dutch built and enjoying a greater degree of American drama, which ran for over the fact that the American playgoing stuff that would make one's side ache prosperity than before the disaster. Great 500 performances in New York during public like to laugh. In "Eabes in if the jokes were all caught. He sends Large sums of money were raised here An enthusiastic suc Real dramatic suc-N Y. Jourgal. N. Y. (Eve.) World "Tense, deamane, un "A wonderful play." -N. Y. (Eve.) Sun -N Y Americani Divide Will live an long as "The most signal Phila. Press. e diesde." -Phila Record "An intensely interest ing drama. Worth going "A powerful play. beautifully seted Anew mark in American Chicago American. "The Long Awaited Great American Play." (N. Y. Press) -Chicago Record Herald. Br "Mr. Miller has -Bostna Herald WM. VAUGHN MOODY "Tackles a big pro-- Boston Globe. As produced at the Princess "Superior to anything ever done in this The big American -St. Louis Despatch and Daly's Theatres and st last."a. St. Louis Republic. Academy of Music, New "Original, during and replically American play, It gips and holds the addrence." York, for more than 500 times. "Will always he re-certid to us the great binerican play." Cincignati Post. PRICES: Orchestra $1.50; Orchestra Circle $1.00; Dress Circle Sc: Gallery 50c, Seats on Sale Thursday. Steward House Tuesday Jan. 19 THE HIT OF THE SEASON "The March of the Toys"-Scene in "Babes in Toyland," at the Steward. this season and last. Some idea of Toyland," the librettist, Mr. MacDon- them out fast, but they are all clean for the relief of the earthquake vic-The PREMIER MUSICAL EVENT of the YEAR and classy. He has sharp competition tims of Italy, for whom the people of the popularity of the play which is ough, has presented a piece that is Victor Herbert and Glen MacDougn's Phenomenal showing at the Heilig is shown by the full of hearty laughs, not the laughter for highest honors in the negro team. This duet has a bushelful of laugh- insurance companies have settled on a Musical Extravanza Success

"Babes in Toyland"

Eddie Redway as Alan (The original Gingerbread man) Gen Ormond asJane

Among the Talented Gast You Will Find Beth Tate as ... Contrary Mary (Late prima donna with H. W. Savage.)

Gus Pixley as Marmaduks Ida Ward as Mrs. Piper "Babes in Toyland."

rush for seats today.

"Shore Acres" Coming. "Shore Acres," which always leaves behind so fine an impression because of its simplicity, its tenderness, its genuineness-its reat touch of nature -will be seen in this city at the Stoward Wednesday, January 27. It that is engenedered by the indiscriminate use of "slapsticks" and stuffed clubs, but the legitimate merriment that is inspired by comedians who appeal to the intelligence of the audionce. This is the reason that this latest Victor Herbert opera, played over a year and a half in New York city. one year in Chicago, fifteen weeks in last evening will be presented again. tonight.

At the Pastime, mestionably a great war film. It was o'clock,

Kingston have a fellow feeling. The able dope. The flims any interesting basis of $5 per cent, and this money in the extreme. The program given has been largely reinvested in Jamalca.

The westbound train was nearer being on time today than any day since "In the Shenandoah Valley" is un- the big storms. It arrived at 10

Mrs. Richards, ot the Tiny Richards' Team, Dancers at the Pastime. shown at the Pastime for the first time vesterday, and it will be presented again tonight. The film is realistic, interesting and well taken. The vauleville artists, the Tiny Richards, contimue to give satisfaction. Their danc-Fletcher at the Scenic. ing is such a novelty that many have Boston and twelve weeks in Philadelgone two evenings in succession. just phia to record-breaking business 'n In Pierre at the Scenic. to witness the dance. every city visited.

A Scene From Henry Miller's "The Great Divide."