Reduced Rates on O. R. & N.
 On December 23, 24, 25 and 31, the O. R. & N. will sell round trip tickets to any station within a distance of 200 miles at a rate of one and one-third fare for the round trip. Final return limit January 4.

A Sprained Ankle.

As a rule a man will feel well satisfied if he can hobble around on crutches in two or three weeks after spraining his ankle, and it is often two or three months before he is fully recovered. This is an unnecessary loss of time, as by applying Chamberlain's Liniment, as directed, a cure may be effected less than one week's time, and in many cases within three days. Sold by all good dealers.

Fever Sores.

Fever sores and old chronic sores should not be healed entirely, but should be kept in healthy condition.
 This can be done by applying Chamberlain's Salve. This salve has no superior for this purpose. It is also most excellent for chapped hands, sore nipples, burns and diseases of the skin.
 For sale by all good dealers.

LODGES BUSY THIS WEEK

This has been a week of installation for local lodges. Monday and Tuesday nights each had one or more.
 Last evening it was the Star Encampment No. 13, I. O. O. F. The latter's officers for the ensuing year, who were duly installed last evening, are:
 H. E. Coolidge, C. P.; A. T. Brooks, S.
 W.; J. A. Arbuckle, H. P.; W. A. Worstell, scribe; W. N. Monroe, treasurer; D. M. Hunt, J. W.; F. B. Currey, guide; George Ball, first W.; D. E. Cox, second W.; G. E. Fowler, I. S.; I. R.
 Snook, O. S.; W. S. Monroe, first guard of the tent.

Two vacancies in the Foresters' lodge officers were filled last evening. William Dunn was installed as lecturer, and Mr. Robins as junior woodal.

ANDY HANSON HITS TOWN

ONCE A LABORER, BUT NOW VERY WEALTHY.

Landmark of Early Days Returns to City for a Brief Visit—Patience Like Job—Wealthy Life Fails to Change
 Andy's Personality.

Yesterday a quiet Norwegian came to the city, but here and there he found an outstretched hand with the exclamation, "Well, well, Andy, is this you?" Many of our readers will immediately recall a young man with flaxen hair, who used to do odd jobs about in what was then only "Old La Grande." Then the railroad came.
 The following year Andy followed well digging for a time and then one day he purchased a cayuse and spent the remaining few days in learning how to tie a packer's knot, and one bright summer morning he bid all his friends good-bye and his friends were limited by the population. But his cheery salutations always brought forth the best that was in the recipient of his smile.

For several years he returned to winter here, and would entertain the boys around Frank Dick's "Star" hotel, about the wonderful strike he had made in the Cracker Creek district. It was the same old story—year after year—and his friends finally began to feel sorry for him, and some even suggested that Andy had weakened his mind on chasing the shadows of a dream of wealth.

But Andy kept his cheer, and one day a rumor reached the city that Andy had struck it. No one believed the report, which was in effect that he had bonded the old mine which he had labored so faithfully on, year after year, but not only was the first payment made, but the second and the remaining ones, until at last it soon became noised about that Andy Hansen was coming to town. Well, he came, but it was the same old Andy we had all known for years, and it was the same old Andy who visited La Grande yesterday, notwithstanding the fact that who you to visit Denver on a high-speed car, among the other fine residences pointed out to you would be a handsome three-story building, situated right opposite the city park—the home of Mr. Andrew Hansen, "one of our mining men."

Since leaving La Grande Andy won the hand of a fair lady and four children have blessed their home, the oldest a daughter of 16. Wealth and luxury have not dimmed memory of former times, and as he clasped the hand of the writer just before stepping on the train to return to his home, he remarked:

"The winter I stayed in Old La Grande, just before the railroad came in, was one of the happiest years of my life, and I often recall those pleasant evenings."

Andy is still interested in one of the well known paying properties in Baker county, the South Pole mine.
