DANCE WAS HUGE SUCCESS

Seventy odd couples tripped the waltz at the Elks' auditorium last evening when the La Grande fire department gave its first annual ball. The spacious floor was comfortably filled with a crowd of pleasure-bent people—both young and old. When Saturday was one hour old, the capable Heacock orchestra locked up its instruments and the crowd dispersed highly satisfied with the evening's entertainment.

From a monetary standpoint the dance was a huge success, too. The advance sale of tickets realized more than $100, which will be diverted to improvement of the fire department. Merchants who never attend a dance, purchased tickets as a boost for the department. Had there been no other tickets sold than those taken in at the door the receipts would have been encouraging. As predicted by The Observer when the ball was first announced, the firemen made a success of this venture into society, as it does well everything else that it attempts.
