MRS. ADCOOK DIED SUNDAY

FUNERAL WILL BE HELD TUESDAY AFTERNOON.

After Almost Two Years of Continuous Illness, Mrs. Adcock is Called by Death—Friends Can View Remains at Family Home Until Tuesday Noon.

Mrs. E. G. Adcock, wife of the senior member of the firm of Adcock & Fritts, furniture dealers, died yesterday morning at 7 o'clock, after two years of almost continual suffering, from cancer. The funeral will be held tomorrow at 2 o'clock from the Baptist church, with interment in the Masonic cemetery, Rev. W. H. Gibson of the Baptist church, officiating.

Death thus again brings sorrow to a La Grande home and to the many friends of the deceased and her relatives that survive her. Much of the time during the last year and a half she has been in a Portland hospital, coming home at times, but never gaining any noticeable strength.

View Remains at Home. The casket will not be opened at the church, and those who wish to view the remains, can do so at the family home, corner Seventh and M streets, between now and 12 o'clock Tuesday.

FUNERAL TOMORROW

The remains of the late Joe McCrary who died in Baker City at 10:30 last Saturday night, were brought to La Grande last evening in charge of Charles McCrary of this city, who is a brother of the deceased. The funeral will be held tomorrow morning at 10:30 o'clock from the Elks' home, with the ritual services.

Death claimed Mr. McCrary after a serious illness of three days, during which he suffered much from hemorrhages. His condition was not considered especially critical and his friends here were not advised of the illness. The news of death was telegraphed Saturday night and Sunday morning his brother went to Baker City to bring the remains here for interment. He is survived by a wife, two children, Albert and Gladys; a brother, Charles, and two sisters, Mrs. Joe Snodgrass of this city, and Mrs. Grace Stott of Boise.

Joe could almost be classed as a pioneer of this city. Born in Van Buren county, Iowa, in 1855, he came to La Grande in 1884. From that date until last July he made his continuous home here. In that month he moved to Baker City and was living there when death came. In 1857 he was married to Miss Kate Grandy, she dying a little more than a year later, and their infant child being buried with the mother. In 1891 he was married to Lettie Green, and from this union were born two children. During his long residence in this city, he formed a large list of intimate friends. He was an active member of the local lodge of Elks and Eagles.

Mrs. McCrary and her two children have the sympathy of the entire city.

Important Meeting. The Lyle Tuesday Musical will meet tomorrow afternoon to make definite plans for the coming recital to be given by them. The meeting, to which every member is urged to attend, will be held in the Mrs. Anthony rooms.

If a fool is lucky he can't see the advantage of wisdom. No harm to study, even if we are not to be called upon to recite.

Political Leaders Gather.

Political leaders from all parts of the state are gathering to take a hand in the Oregon senatorial battle, which will be decided at noon tomorrow in the separate houses of the legislature. The anti-statement members will decide on a plan of action tonight.

Labor Will Demonstrate.

The State Federation of Labor, in meeting here, has planned to make a demonstration in favor of Chamberlain, who opened the convention. The members are wearing "Statement No. 1—People's Choice" badges. The federation will march in a body and take a place in the assembly chamber at noon tomorrow, and make a demonstration if the votes go against the governor.

Senate Morning Session.

Senator Bally introduced a resolution, with amendments from the committee, by Kay, providing that the state officers buy from Oregon producers and firms' goods as far as practical. On motion by Bailey it was referred back to the committee with instructions to define "emergency." The committee had added a clause making an exception in the case of emergency.

Fulton Heard From.

It was learned today that three statement men received telegrams from C. W. Fulton, saying that each one of their votes would defeat Chamberlain and elect Fulton. It is reported three statement men admit having received the telegrams.

Admit Public Tomorrow.

It was decided today by the senate that the general public will be admitted when the general senatorial vote is taken tomorrow. Senator Beach wanted admissions by ticket, which were to be distributed by three senators, but his plan lost.

Cured of a Severe Attack of Bronchitis by Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

"On October 18th, last, my little 3-year-old daughter contracted a severe cold which resulted in a bad case of bronchitis," says Mrs. W. G. Gibson, Lexington, Ky. "She lost the power of speech completely and was a very sick child. Fortunately we had a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in the house and gave it to her according to the printed directions. On the second day she was a great deal better, and on the fifth day, October 23d, she was entirely well of her cold and bronchitis, which I attribute to this splendid medicine. I recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy unreservedly as I have found it the surest, safest and quickest cure for colds, both for children and adults, of any I have ever used." For sale by all good dealers.
