Horses Are Dying.
A disease has struck the horses on the J. T. Galloway Gordon creek ranch, which Ray Shelton has rented, and already three have died, and another is sick, relates the Elgin Recorder. The disease which is killing the horses is unknown, and so far all efforts to stay its progress have availed nothing. Two of the horses that died belonged to John Patterson, and was an exceptionally fine span of work horses. A fine 5-year-old colt belonging to Mr. Shelton died, and the other sick horse is the property of Mr. Shelton. The disease seems to strike the horses in the ankles and knees and within a few hours they are dead. A veterinary was called Wednesday from La Grande, and while he inspected the horses he failed to give the disease a name. It is feared that the malady will strike the other horses on the farm.

ATTORNEY IN TROUBLE

Pendleton, Jan. 17.—The Tribune said Sunday morning:

The most interesting feature of the grand jury report which was submitted to Judge Bean yesterday afternoon was the statement contained in it that a member of the Umatilla County Bar association had been guilty of grave misconduct and that the matter should be investigated at once by the proper officers of the Bar association. No indictment was returned, according to the statement, because the matter could be handled more effectively by the association.

When interviewed by a Tribune reporter last evening regarding the allusions in the closing paragraph of the report, District Attorney G. W. Phelps said:

"The attorney referred to in the report is D. W. Bailey of Pendleton. Acting upon the instructions of the jury I have referred the matter to Judge Stephen A. Lowell, as a member of the grievance committee of the State Bar association, and have also referred it to the County Bar association of which Judge James A. Fee is chairman."

Judge Lowell said regarding the matter:

"No direct charges have been laid before either the county or the state bar thus far, more than the statement of the public report. The State Bar association has a grievance committee with Thomas G. Greene of Portland, as chairman. I am one of the five members of this committee. This matter will be handled by the State Bar association through this committee. After investigations have been made and evidence collected, action will be taken."

Runaway on Rural Route.

Oey Lee met with a painful accident Saturday while driving the rural mail cart for his brother, relates the North Powder News. The cart had been put on runners, and while Oey was eating his lunch the horses took the opportunity to warm up by a lively run. They did not leave the road, but overturned the cart, breaking some panes of glass, a fragment of which gashed his thigh nearly to the bone. He extricated himself without further damage, and put out the fire started by the upsetting of the little gasoline stove, before it did more than scorch the top of a mail sack.

Stomach Trouble Cured.

If you have any trouble with your stomach you should take Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. Mr. J. P. Klote of Edina, Mo., says: "I have used a great many different medicines for stomach trouble, but find Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver tablets more beneficial than any other remedy I ever used."
