TEN CARLOADS OF APPLES

the Ramsey-Oldenberg company of La Grande bought that number from several local growers who had pooled their crops.

The sale price is not announced definitely, though it is known to be at or above the $1 mark—similar to the price paid for the recent big purchase at La Grande.

Shipment of this lot will commence early next week if indications then point to prompt delivery of cars at the eastern destinations. With these 10 carloads, goes practically the last of Union's apples for this season.

DEDICATE TOMORROW

LEVENS CHIEF SPEAKER AND LEADER OF PROGRAM.

Dedication Will Take Place at 8 O'clock—Dancing From 9 on—Banquet and After Dinner Speeches.

Dedicatory services at the Elks' home tomorrow night, commence at 8 o'clock, and from announcements made today, the event will be of considerable import to all members and their lady friends. The dedication will be a formal affair, following out the ritualistic exercises, and to be supervised by W. S. Levens of Baker City, the deputy exalted ruler of Oregon. Mr. Levens' ability as an entertainer is a well established fact. Tho these services—said by members to be extremely interesting—only Elks will attend. But a portion of the public at least derives amusement from the evening's intertainment, as at 9 o'clock dancing commences in the auditorium. Elks' wives and lady friends are to be included in the guests.

Dancing is by no means to occupy all the time, as an elaborate banquet is prepared for a later hour of the night. The final portion of the program consists of an after dinner speech by W. S. Levens and toasts by local Elks of oratorical fame.

Many outsiders will attend. In Baker City several are planning on coming. From Elgin, Joseph, Enterprise and Wallowa still others will attend. Pendleton and lodges even farther east may send delegates to participate in the dedication.
