BACK FROM ALBERTA

J. E. Reynolds and Archie Conley, Union county agents for the Alberta Land company, returned this morning from Alberta, Canada, where they spent a week. They are highly elated at the prospects the country affords. When they reached the Canadian country a week ago, the thermometer stood at 32, and last Sunday it had reached 52 above. This they consider very remarkable weather, and when they alighted from the train, affirmed the climatic conditions here are similar to that in Alberta. They speak highly of the resources of the great wheat belt, to which many are immigrating this year from all parts of the Pacific northwest.

Colds contracted at this season of the year are quickly relieved with Bees Laxative Cough Syrup. Its laxative quality rids the system of the cold. Pleasant to take. Best for children for coughs, colds, croup and whooping cough. Sold by Silverthorn

APPLES IN FAR SOUTH

Grande Ronde apples reach all points of the universe almost, and letters like the following are often received by The Observer, from various parts of the globe, where La Grande people stumble across the delicious fruits that wear originally in this valley:

Beeville, Texas, Jan. 18.—(To the Editor of The Observer.)—While laboring as a missionary for the Latter Day Saints (or Mormon) church in a thrifty little city located in the southern part of the state of Texas, I happened to spy some nice, big red apples, and on the end of the box was the name La Grande, which caused me to investigate, and found that they had been shipped from La Grande by F. L. Coykendall. My home being in the Grande Ronde valley, near Cove, I purchased a couple, which cost me 5 cents, and enjoyed the treat as long as it lasted—which was not very long—as we don't get many good apples in this part of the Lord's vineyard. Although where I am at present, there are orange and lemon trees on every side, with the yellow fruit hanging from their boughs, I still long for the day to come when I can get back into the paradise of the west—the Grande Ronde valley.
