FRUIT TREES INJURED

The Dalles, Jan. 25.—Although it is rather early for orchardists to state definitely whether or not the peach trees are injured by the late freezing weather, some of them state that a few trees are more or less injured. The crop next season may not be as large as it has been in some years, yet there will be enough peaches for the gathering when they ripen, is believed. There never has been a failure of the peach crop in Wasco county. Very often it has been said in past years that the peach crop would be a failure, yet, when the time came to harvest the crop there would be better fruit even if not so large an amount. The trees themselves are not injured, and it is believed that only a few of the tender outer limbs are frozen. Probably no more are frozen than would necessarily have to be pruned, anyway. Apples, pears and cherries are not injured at all. The apricots are injured about as much as the peaches are, but it is believed that the crop will not be much smaller than in previous years.

SCHEDULE IS CHANGED

JOSEPH TRAINS ARRIVE EARLIER; LEAVE LATER.
Morning Train Awaits Arrival of No. 1 and Afternoon Train Reaches Here at 2:30 in the Afternoon.

A new and more convenient schedule is in effect on the La Grande-Joseph run. Trains will leave here for Joseph later in the day and arrive here from Joseph earlier, as well. The main feature of the new schedule which is now in effect, is that the train for Wallowa county will wait here for the arrival of the westbound if the No. 1 is anywhere near on time. The returning time is also more favorable to La Grande merchants, in that more time is allowed in La Grande. North end residents can come to La Grande and spend several hours of the afternoon here, giving them time to transact much business before the close of local business hours. In the event that the afternoon train is a few hours late, it does not deprive the transaction of business during the afternoon.

The New Schedule.
The new schedule, as announced follows:
Leave La Grande, 9:45; arrive at Island City, 9:50; Alsea, 10; Imbler, 10:10; Elgin, 10:30; Palmer Junction, 11:25; Looking Glass, 11:30; Milnam, 12:45; Wallowa, 2; Lostine, 2:45;

Enterprise, 3:45; Joseph, 4:45. Returning No. 31 leaves Joseph at 7:15, running on practically the same schedule as No. 32, reaching La Grande at 2:30 p. m. The more important No. 31 arrival times are: Wallowa, 9; Elgin, 1. The schedule is unquestionably the best solution the officials have yet been able to make of the new train service, as it allows connections with both east and westbound main line trains. There is no change on the main line at this time.

FARM NOT SOLD YET

The current report that the poor farm at Union has been started toward La Grande is inaccurate. The county court has taken no such steps and the dispatch from Union to a Portland paper yesterday is manifestly wrong. The dispatch also states that the bills presented by the management of the poor farm had been rejected by the last session of the county court, another statement that is incorrect.

HIGH CLASS WAGON

Gypsies are oftentimes extravagant, one proof of the statement being now on exhibit at the La Grande Iron works, where an elaborately constructed gypsy wagon is about ready for the owners. The wagon resembles a modern parlor. Rosettes grace the scroll work that can be found in great abundance. It has required the best talent possessed by the shop workmen to satisfy the owner, who is one of the gypsies that some time ago was arrested here for telling fortunes. Handsomely painted, built of the best wood obtainable, are some of the requirements of the contract for the construction of the wagon. In the base of the wagon is a large wardrobe. The sides of the covering are artistically scrolled. When the first one is completed, another will be built here. The cost of the wagon is sufficient to build several "swell" buggies.
