Meetings Close. The special services in Central church closed last evening. The stormy weather during almost the entire service interfered greatly with attendance, but during the last five days there was a good audience. Most of the additions came near the close. In all 16 are counted. Three united who were members elsewhere and 13 confessed their faith in Christ and determined to live for Him. Mr. and Mrs. Harris have made many friends in La Grande. The preaching has been plain and direct, but always kindly. The preacher has strong convictions and speaks boldly, but always with courtesy, so that even those who do not agree must respect the speaker. Mrs. Harris is an excellent leader of song and her solos are of the right kind to inspire to good deeds. Mr. and Mrs. Harris have done us good, and some will date the time of their entering into the higher enjoyment of the more abundant life, from these meetings. The church expects soon to have a consecrated minister to lead in the future and we have a right to hope for larger and better things than ever. REV. O. H. KING
