"The Burgomaster" Next.

W. P. Cullen has made a big revival of Pixley & Luder's famous musical comedy success, "The Burgomaster," and will present it at the Steward Wednesday, February 3, with a large cast, headed by Harry Hermesen and Ruth White. These two sterling players are in the roles of the genial old Peter Stuyvesant, burgo-

Few See Great Play.

A small audience and a great drama. Such were the conditions last evening when "Shore Acres" was presented in the Steward before a small but admiring crowd. From start to finish the progress of the plot is slow and easy, oscillating between comedy and something heavier and more serious, but scarcely emotion. Few plays Beginning on February 8 a special course of two weeks will be given in walnut grafting. This should be of great interest to people contemplating engaging in this industry. The most important methods of walnut grafting will be taken up, including the very successful and famous Payne method. In addition to the lectures, practice will be given in the work, including nursery grafting, and the top-working of the large American black walnut trees found scattered over the state.

In the last two weeks of the course two hours a day of practical instruction will be given in spraying, pruning, staking and setting of orchards. This work includes apples, grapes, peaches, cherries, etc.

Special lectures will be given by some of the best authorities on horticulture to be found in the northwest. Those courses are open to any one interested in horticulture. Come any time.

PENDLETON PIVOT POINT

Pendleton is to be the headquarters of a campaign for the extension of local option through eastern Oregon, and the enforcement of the local option law where the voters have decided for prohibition, according to Rev. B. F. Zimmerman of Portland, a field worker of the state Anti-Saloon league who has been assigned to the eastern Oregon territory, to continue the movement, says the Pendleton East Oregonian. Mr. Zimmerman is in the city looking for a home and expects to move to Pendleton to take up his permanent residence as soon as he can find a suitable house.

According to Mr. Zimmerman the league is especially active at this time and is doing all in its power to keep up the enthusiasm for prohibition and to extend the sentiment wherever possible. It will be Mr. Zimmerman's work to go into the interior counties and through all the wet districts in the eastern part of the state to lay the foundations for prohibition enthusiasm at the next election on that subject.

He will also have charge of the league's efforts at law enforcement in the eastern part of the state and will supervise the work of such detectives as the league shall send him. The league now, Mr. Zimmerman says, has three detectives employed and sends them wherever they are needed in the work of law enforcement. He believes that Pendleton may offer the most field of usefulness.

At present the organization's work is centered at Salem, where it is using every effort to continue the local option law as it is at present, and especially to prevent beer from being exempted from its provisions.

JAP STEVENS RESIGNED

A North Powder special to the Portland Telegram, says:

Jap G. Stevens, for the past 26 years postmaster at Cove, has sent in his resignation because of failing health. Mrs. Annie Arnold, now Mrs. J. E. Carroll, of North Powder, resigned in his favor in 1882, and during the past 26 years Mr. Stevens by untiring attention to his drug store, postoffice and investments in real estate, has got together a neat fortune, augmented by two inheritances from the demise of his wife's relatives in later years. His business interests in Cove are left in the hands of Dr. C. M. Ramsdell, whose wife, now second principal in North Powder schools, was recommended by him as postmaster, accompanied by a lengthy petition to the same effect. Mr. Stevens, wife and little daughter, will winter in California, the son being a student at Eugene. He will reside in Portland, where he has a residence on Nob Hill, purchased in 1904.

New Tricks Tonight.
The side-splitting feature at the Scenic under the direction of Biff and Bang will be varied tonight. The lady tumblers and acrobats will also have new phases to their work. The suicide people are growing more popular every day they are here, for their work is extremely catchy. The films that were put on last evening and appear again tonight, are interesting and pretty.

Are You Only Half Alive?

So many people look and act as though they were only half alive.

They are mere shadows of men and women once strong and robust.

Most of them are deceived as to the real cause of their trouble, which is Kidney Disease.

Diseased kidneys fail to strain out the impurities from the blood, which re-entering the circulation, course through the whole body and derange the entire system. The nerves, the heart, stomach and liver are all affected, and backache, headache and nervous exhaustion are resulting effects.

If you are this way,

Foley's Kidney Remedy

will help you.

It builds up the kidneys, so they will perform their functions properly, and the symptoms soon disappear.

Commence taking it today, and you will feel better at once, as it corrects irregularities, restores lost vitality, and will make you strong and robust.

Do not take chances on becoming a victim of Bright's disease or Diabetes, which are the result of neglected kidney disorders, when Foley's Kidney Remedy will cure you.

CONWELL COMES TO LA GRANDE

GREATEST LECTURER AND "DOER" OF MODERN TIMES.

Eugene Papers Say Conwell is Better Than Bryan and Many Other Noted Men Who Have Been There—Conwell a Remarkable Character—His "Acres of Diamonds" a Masterpiece.

In the First Baptist church, at 8:30 tomorrow night, one of the world's greatest men will give his most noted lecture, "Acres of Diamonds." Eugene papers, where he lectured last Saturday, said of him: "Conwell is the greatest man who ever visited Eugene, notwithstanding the fact that Hon. William Jennings Bryan and other noted men have been here."

Charles A. Dana, former editor of the New York Sun, said of Conwell: "As a writer of biographies he has no superior. His personal history is as fascinating as it is exceptional. He took himself as a poor country lad, created out of the crude material the orator who often combines a Webster and a Gough, and made himself a scholar of first rank." He created from nothing a powerful university specially for the common people, a great and influential church, a hospital, an orphanage. "He has assisted more men in securing an education than any other living American. He is a gem worth your seeking, valuable anywhere. "I say again, I regard Russell H. Conwell America's greatest man in his best form."

Harper's Weekly says of him: "The vote for the living Hall of Fame gave Edison the first place, and Conwell of Philadelphia, the second. It would be difficult perhaps to get the leading educators to unite on even 10 of the greatest men of America, but for creating much out of nothing and doing greatest deeds with smallest means, Conwell has no peer in the United States."

Seats at 50. Reserved seats $1. Children, 25c. Tickets with reservation at Silverthorn's. Tickets are selling rapidly. You will have to hurry.

Dixie Singers Coming.

The Dixie quintet, high class jubilee singers, have been secured to appear at the opera house February 4, under the auspices of the Baraca club, a young men's association of the Presbyterian church. Newspaper comment is favorable wherever the entertainers appear. High endorsement has been given them by every order that has had to do with their appearances throughout the northwest, and the local club considers itself fortunate to have secured the services of these popular singers. They are musicians of a high caliber.

master of New Amsterdam, and Willie in recent years have been so universally satisfactory. Villainy is missing around New York when he is reincarnated. The company will number 50 people. The production is an especially handsome one. The costumes have been revised and are all new. Especial attention has been paid by Mr. Cullen to the voices of the chorus, as well as to the beauty of the feminine portion. "The Burgomaster" was the first of the Pixley & Luder pieces to gain popularity, others being the "Prince of Pilsen," "King Dodo" and "The Grand Mogul." The music is of the singing and whistling variety, and it is said that more copies of "The Tale of the Kangaroo" and "I Love You" have been sold than any other songs, brought out in musical comedies.

HELP FOR FRUIT MEN
Oregon Agricultural College, Jan. 28.—(Special.)—A six weeks' course in horticulture is now under way at the Agricultural college, Corvallis, Ore., and there is a large attendance from different parts of the state, the attendance being more than double that of last year. Some of the most interesting work in the course is yet to come. Many fruitgrowers are unable to attend the course for the entire six weeks, but are able to come for a few days or several weeks. The course is open to them at any time. There will be two weeks more of apple packing and work in budding and grafting. In addition to this, special lectures are given on the various phases of fruitgrowing, truck gardening, and Placed in Steel Cage.

The Cliffords at the Pastime will tonight attempt to work their way out of a steel cage prepared by Bay & Zweifel, plumbers. The builders are stout in their faith that the cage especially built for the occasion cannot be deserted by the clever trunk and lock man. There has been considerable talk about the streets today over the outcome of the test of skill tonight. Last night the trunk man got out of one and into another trunk, both from the Fair store. Their marvelous acts continue to draw big houses for the Pastime. The moving pictures are very satisfactory.
