Eight business men of the city are o ascertain the sentiment of La Grande relative to a Y. M. C. A. buildng in La Grande. This statement is

I continue instruction are mentioned before the continue discofor a model Y. M. C. A. building next week, or next month, but knowing hat the germ must be planted and propagated through an indefinite period in any event, local business men have taken it upon themselves o work along the lines of propagation aid down by those with experience in Y. M. C. A. work. A half hundred last evening attended the lecture given by State Secretary I. B. Rhodes. at the Presbyterian church. The lecturer gave a brief outline, illustrated with stereopticon views, of what Y. M. As are doing in other cities. He threw pictures on the screen of promnent Y. M. C. A. buildings in Oregon, and in his own, clear style, made plain that the great field or the association

The Committee Announced.

Following the lecture came an open liscussion by the men present. The outcome was that a committee was equested appointed by George L. leaver, to ascertain Y. M. C. A seniment in La Grande. This commitee was announced today as follows W. L. Brenholts, J. T. Williamson. Fred G. Geibel, George H. Currey, J. K. Wright, John Collier, Mr. Severon and George L. Cleaver.

The Association Explained. To The Observer today, Mr. Rhode

"One of the remarkable movements f the 20th century is the Young Mon's Christian association, which in he eight years since 1900, has gained rore in membership, property and nen enrolled in its various. fines, of york, than it had in the entire preeding 50 years of its history. This plendid growth is a tribute to the onfidence which the men of the country have placed in the managenent of the organization. Its activiies are manyfold, and it appeals to very place of young men. "Perhaps the best known depart nent of the association is the city or anizations in which about 75 peent of the membership is enrolled These associations are to be found in itles of from 2000 to 1,000,000. Most of them have well equipped buildings. young man coming into one of the ty associations, and after being building, askehe secretary. What is the Y. M. C. A. anyway? He might have been old that it was anyone of a dozen diferent things, such as an athletic clublibrary, a social club, a religious orunication, hotel, a bathing estabushment an employment bureau. ollege, a social service institution, etc. While each of these constitutes a part f its work, it is a combination of the ntire effort that makes the Y. M. C. A, what it is today. It combines everything that goes to make the life of a young man, and he can choose from its many activities the things hat suit him best. Where other sim as gone on with the advantages of ears of experience and efficient or-of the great men of the country an unil list work.

R. A. HUGG RETURNS.

Every County Pretends to Be Assessed at Full Value.

Ex-County Assessor R. A. Hug, who as summoned to Salem to consult with the state board of equalization with reference to adjusting county calues, returned this morning. Mr. Hog stated that nearly every county and ex-county assessor in the state was present at this meeting.

Every county represented took the position that it was assessed its full eash value, but in his opinion Wallowa 344444 county was the only county in the La Grande will have the foundation stantiation of its claim. Wallowa county is assessed at $7,000,000; Union county at about the same, Multnomah tried to substantiate similar claim, but the facts would not warrant. Taxation has been one of the problems of discussion ever since society has bee norganized, and will doubtless continue as long as
