A Common Cold.

We claim that if catching cold could be avoided some of the most dangerous and fatal diseases would never be heard of. A cold often forms a culture bed for germs of infectious diseases. Consumption, pneumonia, diphtheria and scarlet fever, four of the most dangerous and fatal diseases, are of this class. The culture bed formed by the cold favors the development of the germs of these diseases, that would not otherwise find lodgment. There is little danger, however, of any of these diseases being contracted when a good expectorant cough medicine like Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is used. It cleans out these culture beds that favor the development of the germs of these diseases. That is why this remedy has proved so universally successful in preventing pneumonia. It not only cures your cold quickly, but minimizes the risk of contracting these dangerous diseases. For sale by all good dealers.

For That Terrible Itching.

Eczema, tetter and salt rheum keep their victims in perpetual torment. The application of Chamberlain's Salve will instantly allay this itching and many cases have been cured by its use. For sale by all good dealers.

Pineules for the kidneys are golden globules which act directly on the kidneys. A trial will convince you of quick results for backache, rheumatism, lumbago and tired, wornout feeling. 30 days' trial $1. They purify the blood. Sold by Silverthorn.

WHITE GIRL MARRIED TO CHINAMAN

Walla Walla, Feb. 15.—The Bulletin relates that Frank Leo, a Chinese physician, and Bessie Linder, a white girl, were married at 2 o'clock this afternoon at the home of Rev. A. L. Thoroughman, North Fourth street. The wedding taking place in the presence of the girl's mother and her stepfather.

Under the state law no distinction is made between races in the matter of marriage, though several states prohibit intermarriage of Caucasian and oriental races.

Just after the issuance of the license a Bulletin reporter found the man and woman and the parents at the home of the Chinese doctor, 309 West Rose street. Mrs. Sarah C. Lamb, the mother, who had acted as witness when the license was secured, did the talking when they were questioned.

"The girl wouldn't give him up and he wouldn't give her up, and when people like each other I guess it's all right. Anyway, I gave my consent," she said, when it was suggested that a marriage between a Chinaman and a white woman is out of the ordinary. "They have been acquainted six months. They have been going together a long time," she continued, evidently misunderstanding the word "acquainted" and thinking the reporter meant "engagement."

The girl is but 16, and sat in a corner and read a newspaper, peering at the reporter and not saying anything to any other than the room in which the party were seated.

The mother seemed to think that no mention should be made of the marriage, though she said she could not help it if announcement of the license being issued was made.

The stepfather declared that Rev. A. L. Thoroughman would officiate, and Rev. Mr. Thoroughman corroborated this this afternoon, stating that he had performed the ceremony at 2 p. m.

The girl is good looking, of medium height. Frank Leo is a Chinese physician, Americanized and intelligent.

HENRY WATTERSON IS 69.

Henry Watterson, the veteran editor of the Louisville Courier-Journal, is today celebrating his 69th birthday. "Marse Henry" is spending the winter at Napples on the Golf, near Fort Meyer, Florida.

It was expected that Mr. Watterson would deliver an address at Tampa during the state fair, but the recent death of his son, who fell from the window of a New York office building and was instantly killed, has so wrought upon the colonel's mind that he has decided that he will never appear again in public.

"The death of a dearly loved daughter, followed by the appalling tragedy which took from me a son who was the very apple of my eye, leaves me stranded and helpless and wholly unequal to any kind of publicity. Before I left home I cancelled all of my speaking dates and resolved never to again appear before any audience," was a portion of a personal letter which Mr. Watterson addressed to President Brown, of the State fair, now in progress at Tampa.

The great editor of Louisville, who is perhaps the most famous journalist of the country, was born in Washington February 16, 1840. He began his journalistic career in his home city as editor of the "Democratic Review" and "The States," and was one of the reporters of the Associated Press at the time of the inauguration of Lincoln as president in 1861. After a period in Nashville, Tenn., as editor of the "Republican Banner," he settled in Louisville and since 1868 has been the editor of the Courier-Journal in that city.
