LINCOLN ON OREGON TO THE SQUARE MEET UTAH

Baker City baseball fans still insist that La Grande prematurely ended last year's club league. Referring to the

Baker City, the other day, the Herald draws the conclusion that Grant Lincoln is one the square, and continues:

While he comes from the town which seemed to throw down the league last year, it is believed that Mr. Lincoln personally is on the square in all sports.

According to his statement to the Herald if a league is organized it must be done soon, as good ball players will be hard to get in a few weeks. He favors Wesser, Baker, La Grande and Pendleton forming the league, thus cutting out Walla Walla, because it is off the main line. Local baseball men have expressed themselves as favoring the line-puthat was on last year, if Baker enters this season.

There will be some kind of ball played in this city during the season, but just how strong it will be remains for those who have promoted the matter in the past to decide.

Coach Elliot announced today the selection of Earl Kilpatrick, editor-in-chief of the Oregon Weekly, and student body, to represent the university in the debate with the University of Utah at Salt Lake City on March 29, relates a University of Oregon dispatch to a Portland paper. These men served last year on the interstate teams.

The question to be debated is the commission plan of city government. Oregon has been given 10 days in which to choose her side of the discussion. This debate will become an annual affair if satisfactory financial arrangements can be made.

BAKER BOYS GET BOOZE

Where do minors in Baker City get their booze? asks the Herald.

That is one of the questions that the police are working on today. A boy by the name of Lawrence Darby was arrested recently because he was flourishing a knife and acting in a manner that threatened society. It developed that the boy was drunk. His age is but 15 years, and the police department at once began an investigation of the matter.

The practice of selling liquor to minors will not go in this city and any saloon man who is found guilty of the offense must pay the penalty. Tangible evidence is essential, but it is believed that such evidence will be acquired before very long.
