

N. K. WEST'S Great White Sale FOR THIS WEEK ONLY

And you have waited for it because you know such values and qualities as the quality store gives are unknown anywhere else. Some stores advertise goods, under flaring headlines, at the same prices that prevail at their counters at all times, and these prices are not low; others exploit goods at seemingly low prices, but—examine the qualities—examine the workmanship and you will find that the prices asked are perhaps more than the goods are worth. We have cut the prices on every white article in the house such as our new spring waists, embroideries, lawns and undermuslins which we have just unpacked and will be on display all this week and coupled with the very low prices give a new lustre to our value giving for this week.

All Previous Records Broken By Unprecedented Values and Price Reductions

For the wise buyer, a sale of this kind is an opportunity not to be overlooked, for we are showing all our new spring goods for 1909, and which you can buy at a great saving.

would attract the institution here, it is logical that the asylum will eventually be located near Union.

In speaking of the special session of the legislature which is liable to be called, Mr. Richardson affirmed he was not of the opinion that the call would be made. He believes the matter will be settled "out of court" as it were.

Death at Cove.

Yesterday morning Mrs. Ella Harrison died at the home of her sister, Mrs. W. E. Alexander. The deceased was about 35 years of age, and had been in poor health for some time. The funeral will take place tomorrow if the brothers arrive. One brother resides in Wallowa county, and the other in the state of Washington.

Welcome News.

A telephone message from Cove this morning states that M. B. Reese, who has been dangerously ill for the past few days and yesterday was thought to be in a dying condition, is much better and that hopes are entertained for his recovery.

WHOLESALE ARRAIGNMENT

years in the state's prison. He was convicted of stealing an overcoat from the Farquharson rooming house. Judge Knowles stated while passing sentence that while he felt that there was no question as to his guilt, the court had taken note of the youth of the prisoner and had made the sentence as light as it consistently could.

Baumgardner Case Dismissed.

Another case to receive attention was that of Baumgardner vs. Herman Roesch. This was an appeal from the justice court. It involved a matter of $6.87, but the appellant failed to appear, and judgment was awarded the defendant, and the case dismissed.

Chandler Pleads Not Guilty.

Rube Chandler, charged with burglary from a building, was arraigned and pleaded not guilty and his trial set for Wednesday.

Anderson Contempt Case Tomorrow.

The matter of the contempt proceedings against Charles Anderson will come up for hearing tomorrow some time.

Those who are indicted and who, with the exceptions of Hayman and John Stevens, were arraigned today, are: J. Bonnett, Burt Slack, John McRae, George Slack, Philber Choate, Frank Rogers, John Stevens, James Childers, William Hunter, Cecil End, Mike Royce, Walter Witherow, Guy Hobson, Hayman Stevens, William Russell and C.
