OBSERVER INTRODUCES NEW STUDY OF DEEP INTEREST

A class of study that has been adopted throughout the western states as both extremely practical and interesting, in the newspaper Bible study classes. The leading dailies of Washington and Oregon are adopting the work and The Observer will commence its study tomorrow. It is known as the International Newspaper Bible Study, with none other than the Rt. Rev. T. S. Linscott, D. D., as the copyright holder and editor. Aside from the Biblical instructions that will be acquired by a course of study to appear each week, there will be medals to the person rendering the best answer each week of the coming year to the question that will be asked. The details of the study which will be greeted with considerable interest in La Grande as it is now being greeted in other western cities, are quite numerous and The Observer outlines the rules hereafter. The questions are based on the International Sunday School topic for the Sunday following the day the work appears in this paper.

Persons may join the club at any time during the year, but must, of course, answer the 52 questions hereinafter explained, to qualify for the prizes. It is, however, desirable that the questions be answered as the lessons are studied.

The International Newspaper Bible Study club is for the purpose of promoting, in an unfettered way among the masses, a wider study of the Bible, the basal truths of Christianity, and the problems which enter into every man's life. It is composed of all those who join a local club, and take up the simple course herein outlined, barring only ordained clergymen. Sunday school teachers, Bible class scholars, and church-goers generally, may belong to this Newspaper club, also non-church-goers. All such who have not joined are warmly invited to do so and to compete for the prizes.

One Question Each Week.
This paper has secured the right to publish the International Sunday school lesson questions by Rev. Dr. Linscott, which have aroused so much interest elsewhere, and they will appear weekly. One of these questions each week is to be answered in writing, and upon these answers the prizes are to be awarded.

This paper is authorized to form a local Newspaper Bible Study club for its readers and guarantees to all who join and fulfill the conditions, that everything herein promised shall be faithfully carried out.

Conditions of the Contest.

1. Each contestant or his or her family, must be a subscriber to this paper, during the continuance of the contest, in order to qualify for membership in the International Newspaper Bible Study club and this local club.

2. Each contestant in this local club must answer each of the written questions for 52 consecutive weeks, commencing for Sunday, March 7, and the answers must all be in the possession of this paper within two weeks of the close of this period.

3. Each question must be answered separately, and the paper written on one side only. No answer must exceed two hundred words in length and may be less. Each answer must have the name and address of the writer at the bottom of the answer.

4. Students should be careful to understand the question before answering. To do this, the lesson text must be read and especially the verse, or verses, upon which the question is based.

5. The answers from this local club must be delivered to this office, and they will be collated at the close of the contest, and forwarded to headquarters for independent examination by competent examiners. The prizes will then be awarded according to the highest number of marks, won by members of the International Newspaper Bible Study club, and prizes which may be awarded to members of this local club will be given out from this office.

The Prizes.

First Series—A gold medal to each of the first five contestants.

Second Series—A silver medal to each of the next five contestants.

Third Series—A Teachers' Bible, price $5.50, to each of the next five contestants.

Fourth Series—The book "The Heart of Christianity," price $1.50, to each of the next 35 contestants.

Fifth Series—A developed mind, an expanded imagination, a richer experience and a more profound knowledge of the Bible and of life, to all who take this course, whether winning any other prize or not.

Each medal will be suitably engraved, giving the name of the winner, and for what it is awarded, and in like manner each Bible and book will be inscribed.

All who can write, and have ideas, are urged to take up these studies regardless of the degree of their education, as the papers are not valued from an educational or literary standpoint, but from the point of view of the cogency of their reasoned ideas.

PLAY ENDS IN INJURY PENDLETON HOUSE FAILS

While engaged in a game of Indian and coyote late Tuesday afternoon, Carl Mathews, the 7-year-old son of Tom Mathews of West Alta street, was shot in the eye with an arrow and may yet lose his eye unless great precautions are taken. Dr. Best, who was called to dress the wound, said it would be necessary for the boy to be kept in a dark room and his eye carefully bandaged for several days in order to prevent the loss of sight, says the Pendleton Tribune.

The injured boy was making a rapid run past his companion when the arrow was hurled at him from the bow. He had just turned his head slightly to the right to keep watch upon the hunter in true coyote style, and received a glancing blow from the small wooden arrow in his right eye. A gash almost an inch long was cut in the eyeball, dangerously near the pupil.

The Pendleton Cloak & Suit House has gone into bankruptcy, a petition to that effect being filed yesterday by the attorneys, Peterson & Wilson, says the Pendleton East Oregonian. The establishment has been owned, up to the present time by C. C. Anthony who was, prior to the purchase, a farmer in the neighborhood of Spokane.

The liabilities amount to $12,000 and the assets are now estimated to be $12,000. His creditors are principally New York firms, a minority being in the middle west states and the coast. Mrs. Anthony is the largest creditor and his daughter comes next. This money was borrowed from them to tide over until he could recover from his financial stringency. Mrs. Anthony had loaned him $2000 and his daughter, who is a school teacher, loaned him $1000.

Candidate's Announcement.
I take this manner to inform the voters of La Grande that I am a candidate for marshal of this city at the coming city election and respectfully solicit their consideration.
