SUGGESTIVE QUESTION ON THE SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

BY REV. DR. LINSOTT FOR
THE INTERNATIONAL NEWSPAPER BIBLE STUDY CLUB

(Copyright, 1908, by Rev. F. S. Linscott, D. D.)
March 7th, 1909.

Philip and the Ethiopian—Acts viii: 26-40.

Golden Text—Ye search the Scriptures because ye think that in them ye have eternal life: and these are they which bear witness of me.—John v: 39.

Verse 26—When God directs us by circumstances or by a friend, or by an angel, is it just as much from God as though He spoke to us direct?

I do not know whether this angel was a devout man, or woman, or a mental picture, or a dream, or a spirit; but he, she, or it, convinced Philip, that God wanted him to go south; now how did Philip know that the impression to go south was of God; and how may we know under similar circumstances?

(This question must be answered in writing by members of the club.)

May any person who is not playing double with God, safely trust "the inward voice," to direct as to outward circumstances?

Verse 27, 28—Philip found that he had not come on a fool's errand; now is it not invariably so, that results of tomorrow, always justify the faith-vision of today?

Seeing this Ethiopian was a man of exalted position, in a foreign country, what was the significance of Philip being sent to him?

Verse 29—When Philip saw this man's chariot looming up in the distance, perhaps after days or weeks of waiting, with more or less doubt; he got the impression that this was his opportunity; now from whom did he get the impression?

With what sort of a voice did the Holy Spirit speak to Philip?

If we should learn that the Holy Spirit used the circumstances, and Philip's reasoning processes, his hope and his fears, as God's voice, would that be as really the voice of the Holy Spirit, as if words were spoken by God out of the clouds?

Is it always safe for us to do as the Holy Spirit tells us, as in this case? Verse 30—Was this Ethiopian a devout man?

If a man devoutly searches the Scriptures, is he sure to find God? If a man devoutly searches the book of nature, with a desire to obey her laws, is he sure to find God?

Verses 31-34—Where in the Bible is the passage which the Ethiopian was reading?

Can we understand the Scriptures or get the full import of any fact, without the aid of the Holy Spirit?

Why could not, or why did not, the Holy Spirit explain this Scripture to the Ethiopian direct?

As a matter of fact, was not the Holy Spirit guiding the Ethiopian as much as he Philip?

Was Isaiah conscious when he wrote these words, that they applied to Jesus; or did he think that he was describing some other person or persons?

Did not the prophets, as other inspired men, often write more wisely than they knew?

Verses 35-38—Did this Ethiopian need "converting" the same as a willful sinner, or did he, as a devout child of God, simply recognize Jesus as the sent of God, and was then baptized in his name?

Verses 39, 40—Was Philip, so to speak, "spirited" away, or did he leave in a natural manner?

Lesson for Sunday, March 14, 1909—Aeneas and Dorcas, Acts ix: 31-43.
