A. Y. P. COULD OPEN MAY 1

Seattle, March 8.—(Special).—With practically every other detail complete, with buildings erected and exhibits being rapidly installed, the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific exposition of three months before the opening is left with nothing to worry about except the participation of various states in the union. Four state buildings are already standing on the fair grounds, while 13 states are certain to exhibit, and some of them have yet to erect their structures. Some will show their displays in the main exposition buildings. The late comers are those who delayed their appropriations until the 1909 sessions of their legislatures. Commissioner General J. B. Meikle estimated on March 1 that there were then pending appropriations amounting to over $300,000 in different states. Most of this is in states that the exposition authorities have not been seriously confident were going to exhibit, and anything done by these states at the eleventh hour will be doubly pleasing as it is more or less unexpected.

Three Coast Buildings Complete.
The Pacific coast states were first in the field at the A. Y. P. exposition. Oregon finished her building first, California second and Washington third. These three buildings are now complete, and exhibits are being installed. New York, whose handsome building will revert to the University of Washington after the fair, and will be used as a residence for the president of that institution, has her work well in hand.

Eastern States Appropriate.
Among the eastern states Massachusetts, Pennsylvania, Connecticut, New Jersey and others will exhibit in some of the main exhibit palaces. In the middle west, Wisconsin and Minnesota have $50,000 appropriations pending before their legislatures. Missouri, which a year ago declined to exhibit, has reconsidered the matter at the demand of Governor Hadley, who urges his state to spend $40,000 for an exhibit.

In every other detail, the A. Y. P. exposition today stands very nearly complete, and the opening could be held on May 1 as well as June 1. If the directors saw fit. Exhibits are being installed in the main palaces, and the shows along the Pay Streak. The four government buildings are taking on a finished look, and the managerial brows have lost their wrinkles with the assurance that they have made good the A. Y. P. motto, "The Fair That Will Be Ready."

SPELLING MATCH.

One of the Real Old-Fashioned Kind Held at Rock Creek.

One of the real old-fashioned spelling matches was held at the Rock Creek school house last Friday night, February 26, the honors of the evening going to Miss Myrtle Benson. A number were present from Muddy Creek and other localities, and a general good time is reported. Notwithstanding the large number present, good order was maintained throughout the evening. Another entertainment of a similar nature will be held next Friday night, March 12.—Haines Record.

MAKE HEADQUARTERS HERE.

New State Evangelist of Oregon Arrives From Nebraska.

Rev. Samuel Gregg, the new state evangelist of Oregon for the Christian church, arrived today from Lincoln, Neb., to enter upon his new field of labor. Rev. Gregg has been engaged in this line of work for the past 14 years. He expects to make La Grande his headquarters.

Double Wedding.

Last Sunday afternoon Rev. A. L. Howarth officiated at a double wedding which took place in the parlor of the Hotel Sheets. The contracting parties were John H. Sheets and Miss Bertha Harper of Milton, and Ira Haskins and Mrs. Margaret E. Coulter. After the double ceremony had been performed and congratulations bestowed upon the happy couples, a sumptuous wedding supper was served to all, 80 plates being laid.—Joseph Herald.

DENTIST

If your dentist is busy ALL the time he becomes more proficient in his work and can afford to give you the benefit in a financial way as well as in his increased skill.

The man who waits half the time in order to get work the other half is not in this position but must make up for LOST time.

I claim the credit of reducing the price of extracting from $1.00 to 50c and also a reduction in other lines of work from what you have been paying in La Grande in the past.

I am here for business and am in position to give you reliable dental work. The price cuts little figure with me.
