MARIE DROFNAN EXCELS.

Hanford's Leading Lady Talented in Reading "Mercy Speech"

Miss Marie Drofnan's reading of the so-called "Mercy Speech" in the court scene of the "Merchant of Venice," which will be given at Steward's opera house on Monday, March 22, by Charles B. Hanford and company, will be listened to with great interest. There is no finer or more beautiful passage in all English literature, and Miss Drofnan has won an enviable reputation as a reader. There are perhaps no better readers of Shakespearean verse on the American stage, than Mr. Hanford and Miss Drofnan, and their presentation of the play should be a delight to all lovers of the classic drama.

DENTIST

If your dentist is busy ALL the time he becomes more proficient in his work and can afford to give you the benefit in a financial way as well as in his increased skill.

The man who waits half the time in order to get work the other half is not in this position but must make up for LOST time.

I claim the credit of reducing the price of extracting from $1.00 to 50c and also a reduction in other lines of work from what you have been paying in La Grande in the past.

I am here for business and am in position to give you reliable dental work. The price cuts little figure with me.
