Stiff Neck.
Stiff neck is caused by rheumatism of the muscles of the neck. It is usually confined to one side, or to the back of the neck and one side. While it is often quite painful, quick relief may be had by applying Chamberlain's Liniment. Not one case of rheumatism in 10 requires internal treatment. When there is no fever and no swelling as in muscular and chronic rheumatism, Chamberlain's Liniment will accomplish more than any internal treatment. For sale by all good dealers.

An Ideal Cough Medicine.
"As an ideal cough medicine I regard Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in a class by itself," says Dr. R. A. Wiltshire, of Gwynneville, Ind. "I take great pleasure in testifying to the results of Chamberlain's Cough medicine. In fact, I know of no other preparation that meets so fully the expectations of the most exacting in cases of croup and coughs of children. As it contains no opium, chloroform or morphine, it certainly makes a most safe, pleasant and efficacious remedy for the ill it is intended." For sale by all good dealers.

"LYNWOOD" AT STEWARD

The degree of popularity attained by the Curtiss Comedy company during its recent engagement in La Grande is clearly and definitely illustrated by the manner in which the seats for "Lynwood" are now selling. "Lynwood" is the play selected by the management of the Curtiss company for the opening night this evening, of the return engagement in this city. It is a semi-military play of unusual attractiveness and one which holds the interest of the audience during its entire performance. Miss Leota Howard, the company's gifted leading lady, will be seen in one of the cleverest and most artistic portrayals in the delineation of "Lucille Carlyle," the daughter of a rich and respected southerner. The story of the play is laid upon life and incidents of the great struggle between the north and on the American stage today that will delight an interested audience as "Lynwood" does.

The production here will be a finished one and will bring out to the complete satisfaction of all every detail intended by the author of the play. As stated before, Miss Howard's work will be exceptionally artistic and the efforts of the supporting cast are sure to be appreciated by all who attend the production. Melvin Mayo, the leading man, is pleasingly strong and forceful in the character of Victor Blanchard, who, though a northern soldier, is "Lucille's" lover. Dudley Middleton, the villain of the piece, is realistically impersonated by George Routh, while the comedy part of the play falls into the capable hands of S. M. Curtiss. The others in the large cast will be found adequately able to render their respective parts well.

I weigh the man but not the title. It is not the king's stamp that can make the metal better.—Wycherly.

ECZEMA CURABLE? PROVEN!

Attorney at Moline, Ill., Convinced by Oil of Wintergreen Compound.

There is nothing that will convince a lawyer except evidence. Now, here is some rather startling evidence of a simple home cure for eczema which convinced one lawyer, F. C. Entriken, attorney at Moline, Ill. He tells how oil of wintergreen compound mixed with thymol and glycerine, as in D. D. D. Prescription, cured him in 30 days after 32 years of suffering.

"For 32 years," writes Attorney Entriken, "I was troubled with eczema, scabs all over my face, body and head. I could run a hair brush over my body and the floor would be covered with scales enough to fill a basket. I tried everything—salves, internal medicine, X-ray—all without result."

"Just a month ago I was induced to try D. D. D. Prescription. The itch was relieved instantly; so I continued. It is just a month now and I am completely cured. I have not a particle of itch and the scales have dropped off."

"I can only say again Cure Discovered. I am now sending all eczema sufferers on the right track." Cure after cure has been brought to our attention and always that instant relief from the awful itch. Newlin Drug Co.

To be vain of one's rank or place, is to show that one is below it.—Stanislaus.
