SUGGESTIVE QUESTION ON THE SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON BY REV. DR. LINSOTT FOR THE INTERNATIONAL NEWSPAPER BIBLE STUDY CLUB

(Copyright, 1908, by Rev. T. S. Linscott, D. D.)
March 14th, 1909.

Aeneas and Dorcas. Acts 9:31-43.
Golden Text.—And Peter said unto him: Aeneas, Jesus Christ maketh thee whole, arise, and make thy bed. And he arose immediately.—Acts 9:34.

Verses 31.—Do darkness and light, fighting and victory, sorrow and joy, persecution and "rest" alternate and enter into every normal Christian life today, as in the Christian community in the beginning?

When a church walks in "the fear of God," and "the comfort of the Holy Spirit," is it always multiplied?

Verses 32.—Was there any institution, in the Apostolic age, to correspond with our settled pastorate?

If preachers were to follow the Apostolic plan, of "passing throughout all quarters," would the final conquest of the world be hastened?

To whom did the name "saint" apply, in those days, and should we continue the use of it in these days?

Verses 33, 34.—Is all sickness of the Devil?

Are some people sick by the special dispensation of God?

Does not God take most people to heaven through sickness?

What proportion of sickness is avoidable?

Are we to assume that God wants to cure everybody from their sickness, the same as he does from their sin?

Was Aeneas cured through his own faith, or by the power and pleasure of God, without faith?

What is the difference in this cure and modern faith healing methods?

Is God's ideal for us, sickness or health?

Does God cure some people today in a similar way to the cure of this man?

Is faith for the cure of sickness a special gift of God, and are we not instructed that God will cure the sick in answer to such faith?

Verses 35.—When God does cure some cases of noted sickness, what are the results in the community?

If the church should have the power restored of healing sickness, would that produce a permanent revival?

Verses 36, 38.—Is it as a rule possible for a Christian to live without doing good?

How do you classify those who content themselves with going to church and prayer meeting, and talking and praying, and are not following Jesus in "going about doing good?"

Why did God permit Dorcas to die? Why does God sometimes permit those to die upon whom so much depends: the bread-winner of the family, the mother of little children, the pillar of the church, or the "Dorcas" in the community?

Verses 39.—Should a Christian always be ready to go to the home of sorrow, to render help and impart comfort?

It is a beautiful custom to speak of the good deeds of the dead, and it is well kept up; but is there not almost criminal neglect in speaking of the good deeds of the living? (This question must be answered in writing by members of the club.)

Verses 40-43.—Is there any use today in praying that the dead be raised?

Why did God raise the dead in those and not in these days?

What great purpose has that miraculous age served?

Even if these miracles should prove to be but legends, will it affect one iota, any essential truth of Christianity?

Lesson for Sunday, March 21, 1909.

Hurry Trolley Construction.

Walla Walla, March 11.—Announcement was made this morning by those closely associated with the promoters of the Columbia-Walla Walla traction line from Dayton to Wallula that the engineer who is to have charge of actual construction work will arrive in the city tonight or tomorrow morning, and that men and teams are to be put in the field to grade the right of way, which has been practically secured for the entire line. Grade stakes have been set on a portion of the line, and with the chief engineer on the ground personally superintending the work, the preliminary work on the Columbia-Walla Walla lines have been made possible. The farmers' line and the old Columbia-Walla Walla lines have been merged into one, under the management of L. G. Mathias, who came here last week to see what could be done toward completing the line.
