OKLAHOMA SENDS MANY

Portland, March 15.—(Special correspondence)—Oregon has a champion in R. L. Smith of Shawnee, Okla., who has just advised that a half dozen families started for this state last week, with 15 families to follow, from the same vicinity on the 15th. Mr. Smith will locate here himself in the near future.

The Chicago Association of Commerce has decided that it is impossible for them to send the 150 school boys and girls for a visit throughout Oregon this summer, but the discussion of the subject in the great mid-continent metropolis has created a tremendous amount of enthusiasm, and it is thought now that probably some other city, possibly St. Louis, may take up the enterprise and make it a success. In Chicago the heart is willing but the purse is weak.

One of the pictures furnished the publishers of "Country Life in America" by the Portland Commercial club, is honored by being reproduced in that magazine of March. In an article contrasting the rose gardens of England with American gardens, this picture of a luxuriant rose hedge is shown with the information beneath to the effect that Oregon is the only place in the United States with a climate approximating that of England and permitting such roses. "Such rose hedges as these are common in Oregon" is a statement that is going to attract much attention among flower lovers all over the country.

Development League meetings will be held at Independence on Monday, March 15, at Dallas on Tuesday, and Corvallis Wednesday, under the auspices of the local organizations of these cities.

The business men of Portland have definitely determined to make the Publicity Fund of the Portland Commercial club $100,000 annually, and this sum will be spent in advertising the resources and advantages of the whole state of Oregon as heretofore.

"Harpers' Weekly" under date of April 3, will devote a great deal of space to the Pacific Northwest, and in this number Oregon will not be overlooked in either text or picture. The Portland Commercial club has a page in which the central feature is the famous scroll carrying the message "Oregon is the place for you."

George D. Maxfield, general passenger agent of the Wabash railroad, with headquarters at Buffalo, N. Y., is anxious for literature from all points in Oregon. He says the inquiry for this information is insistent, and it is emphasized at this time by the rate of $42.50 in effect to Oregon points from his region until April 30—the regular fare is $57.50.

In the Justice's Court for the La Grande Justice of the Peace and Constable District, Union County, Oregon.

Wadhams & Kerr, plaintiff, vs. W. E. Amos, defendant.

To W. E. Amos, the above named Defendant:

In the name of the state of Oregon, you are hereby required to appear in the above entitled court and action on or before the 24th day of April, 1909, the same being full six weeks after the first publication of this summons, and if you fail to appear and answer, the plaintiff will take judgment against you in the sum of $43.50 and costs and disbursements herein. The said sum of $43.50 being the amount due the plaintiff.

This summons is published by order of the Hon. A. Stewart, Justice of the Peace for the La Grande district, in the above entitled court. Made and entered on the 1st day of February, 1909, which order directed that said summons shall be published not less than once a week for the full period of six weeks in the La Grande Evening Observer. The first publication hereof is made on the 12th day of March, 1909.

WADHAMS & KERR, Plaintiff.

Good Cough Medicine for Children.

The season for coughs and colds is now at hand and too much care cannot be used to protect the children. A child is much more likely to contract diphtheria or scarlet fever when he has a cold. The quicker you cure his cold the less the risk. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the sole reliance of many mothers, and few of those who have tried it are willing to use any other. Mrs. F. P. Starcher, of Ripley, W. Va., says: "I have never used anything other than Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for my children, and it has always given good satisfaction." This remedy contains no opium or other narcotics and may be given as confidently to a child as to an adult. For sale by all good dealers.

Sick headache, constipation and biliousness are relieved by Rings Little Liver Pills. They cleanse the system. Do not gripe. Price 25c. Sold at E. J. Verthorn's Family drug store.
