FIVE COME HERE DAILY

An average of five tickets are sold to La Grande in the middle west during the last 10 days, according to estimates compiled in this city. The ticket sales show that number come directly to La Grande, but about 50 per cent of them continue tours before making definite settlement.

TEDDY'S HORSE SOLD. Ballinger of Seattle, Has Purchased Roosevelt's Mount. Washington, March 20.—Richard Ballinger, secretary of the Interior, has purchased for his own use, "Roosevelt," the saddle horse recently owned by Roosevelt. Ballinger rode him the first time yesterday. When Roosevelt departed from Washington he left "Roosevelt" as favorite mount and ... in the care of a horseman here, with the stipulation that he be sold into private ownership only, and to a person appreciating a good horse.
