ADDED HOPE FOR WESTON

INITIATIVE MAINTENANCE LIKELY TO BE ADOPTED.

Weston Normal Has Last Chance to Live in Future Through Initiative Appropriation.

"If a bill is presented under the initiative for the maintenance of the Eastern Oregon Normal school, I believe it will carry. I have sounded the sentiment considerably upon this point. Even western Oregon people speak highly favorable of the eastern Oregon school and predict that the people will vote to sustain it. There is a sentiment in favor of the Eastern Oregon Normal because this section of the state has no other educational institution. At the next election each Normal school should stand alone."

Thus declared Senator C. J. Smith, who returned to his home in Pendleton Friday, says the East Oregonian. Senator Smith has just returned from attending the special session, having been detained in Portland yesterday by a meeting of the state board of health of which he is a member.

Regents to Blame.
That the regents of the Normal school are partly to blame for the defeat of the Normals is declared by Senator Smith. According to the senator he discovered during the special session that a majority of even the senate would have favored the Normals had not the regents at the start insisted upon $120,000 for new buildings as well as an appropriation for maintenance. Objection to the appropriations for buildings was raised. Then the Oregonian gave support to those who were fighting the bill and a number of senators who are prospective candidates for governor, took up the fight against the Normals on the theory that it was a popular issue.

An Ideal Cough Medicine.
"As an ideal cough medicine I regard Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in a class by itself," says Dr. R. A. Wiltshire, of Gwynneville, Ind. "I take great pleasure in testifying to the results of Chamberlain's Cough medicine. In fact, I know of no other preparation that meets so fully the expectations of the most exacting in cases of croup and coughs of children. As it contains no opium, chloroform or morphine, it certainly makes a most safe, pleasant and efficacious remedy for the ills it is intended." For sale by all good dealers.
