Magnificent Film.
"Grand Canal of Venice," an educational film, will be shown at the Scenic this evening. The beauties of the famous city of Venice are brought before the eyes of the audience as they gaze on this magnificent picture. It takes the witness, in fancy, on a trip through the many waterways of that ancient city. Floating down the grand canal the audience can view with unbounded vision, the excellent scenery along that canal. The Rialto and the famous St. Mark's cathedral are shown. The Royal Palace will be seen at close range.

De Cotret & Regoee to Put on New Change at Scenic Tonight.

The Scenic presents this picture tonight and tomorrow night. It must be seen to be thoroughly understood.

De Cotret & Rego put on a new skit tonight, while "The Dog Catcher" will again be seen, as many patrons have not yet had an opportunity and those who did are anxious to see it again.

Six new lenses to show the pictures more clearly, have arrived, and will be used hereafter.

FLORENCE ROBERTS COMING.
Will Play "The House of Bondage" at Steward April Ninth.

Florence Roberts, in the most suitable role she has yet played and surrounded by the most competent support she has yet enjoyed, is enough to interest en masse the theatergoers of this city. Miss Roberts will appear at the Steward April 9, as "Joan" in Seymour Obermer's play, "The House of Bondage," which comes heralded by words of praise that indicate the dramatic treat of the season. Miss Roberts is said to have appeared in no previous role that so suited her exceptional and varied abilities.

The piece is of English authorship and locale, but hits a theme of universal interest, while abounding throughout in dialogue and absorbing situations. The names of Arthur Forest, Thurston Bergen, Kent Bosworth, Harry Gibbs, Ann Warrington and Mary Bertrand, appear in the supporting cast. Under the direction of John Cort, the usual attractive Roberts' production is furnished.

Strong Bill at Pastime.
The popular team "Orton and Leoto" will present tonight a German society sketch built for laughing purposes only. If you like to look at swell wardrobe go to the Pastime this week. Miss Rorton certainly wears the swell costumes and has plenty more to come. She changes nearly every time she appears.

This team has well earned the praise and applause that their audiences thus far have showered upon them. Their next change will be "Regan's Visit," an Irish comedy in which Miss Leoto introduces "Buster Brown" with appropriate songs and monologue.

Harry Cramer is an expert in his line and he makes the juggling act very interesting by introducing some comedy. There will be an entire change of pictures tonight also. The latest subjects direct from the film houses, will be shown.

S.S.S. CURES CHRONIC ULCERS

Any chronic ulcer shows an unhealthy and impure condition of the blood. It is a diseased condition of the flesh at that particular spot, caused and kept inflamed and irritated by a continual discharge into it, of unhealthy matter from the circulation. No treatment can have any curative effect except a medicine which will renovate the blood and entirely remove the cause. Salves, washes, lotions, etc., are sometimes helpful in reducing inflammation, cleansing the ulcer, or by lessening the discharge, but such applications do not reach the blood where the disease germs are located and can never effect a cure. S. S. S. goes down into the circulation, drives out all impurities and solid matter, and by nourishing the flesh with rich pure blood, causes it to place to heal naturally and permanently. S. S. S. does not merely cure, but by beginning at the bottom, and rebuilding broken-down tissue, and supplying healthful, healing qualities to the blood, causes the place to fill in with new, firm flesh, while it steadily but surely effects a permanent cure. The ulcer can not exist when the blood is pure, and S. S. S. will thoroughly purify the blood. Book on Sores and Ulcers and any medical advice free to all who write.

An Ideal Cough Medicine.

"As an ideal cough medicine I regard Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in a class by itself," says Dr. R. A. Wiltshire, of Gwynneville, Ind. "I take great pleasure in testifying to the results of Chamberlain's Cough medicine. In fact, I know of no other preparation that meets so fully the expectations of the most exacting in cases of croup and coughs of children. As it contains no opium, chloroform or any poison, it certainly makes a most safe, pleasant and efficacious remedy for the ill it is intended." For sale by all good dealers.
