Change Again Sunday.
The Scenic will have five vaudeville people tomorrow night when De Cotret and Rego will put on a brand new change for the one evening, and "The Dog Catcher" will again be presented. The show tonight will be similar to the prize winner last evening. Next week the Scenic will introduce Palmer & Robins, two clever people, and Weaver & Williams, two talking and singing artists. Williams can do the feminine impersonation to a turn, it is said.

ENDLESS CHAIN PRAYER.

Of a Condemned Letter Prayer Makes Appearance Once More.

La Grande has again been visited by the oft condemned endless prayer letter. Notwithstanding the ministerial associations of high power have attempted to stamp it out, the letter continues to make its appearance. It reads like this:

An Ancient Prayer.

Oh, Lord Jesus, I implore thee to bless all mankind. Keep us from all evil and take us to dwell in eternity.

It is said in Jerusalem that he who will write this prayer for nine days, commencing with the day received, will experience some great joy on the ninth day. He will also be delivered from all calamities. But he who will not write will meet with misfortune. Make a wish while writing and be sure to write nine days to nine friends. Sincerely,

Card of Thanks.

We wish to thank the out-of-town patrons and all others who so generously donated eatables for the lunches and dinners given over the M. & M. store during the Sunday school convention. Without their assistance we could not have entertained the convention.

ISLAND CITY SUNDAY SCHOOL.

Philadelphia, March 27.—Several inquiries have been received from bantamweights as to whether the 105-pound championship could be added to the Middle Athletic association of the A. A.
