ENTERPRISE HORSE SHOW

The Fifth Annual Horse and Stock Saturday, April 17, and from the interest already manifested it is believed this will be the best ever held, relates the Enterprise News-Record. Walla-walla county has the finest horses, cattle and sheep in Oregon and this annual show is a great opportunity to prove it to the world.

As heretofore there are no charges connected with the event. It is a voluntary showing by the stockmen of the county. There are no judging or awards of premiums, so if you have a good stallion, mare, saddle or driving horse, a good bull, cow, or calf, or good sheep, don't keep them at home for fear someone has a better—bring them to the show and help make it a grand success. There will be lots of outside people in Enterprise that day.

The affair will be well managed and everyone will be given equal opportunity to show his stock. The following committee on invitation has been announced:

Horses—Wesley Duncan, Joseph; Jack Johnson, The Buttes; H. C. Zumwalt; Carl Whitmore, Enterprise; Sam Wade, Lostine; A. A. Greer, John McDonald, Hector McDonald, J. L. Maxwell, Wallawa; J. Q. Connolly, Hiers; Sam Applegate, Appleton; E. A. Anderson, Elk Mountain. Cattle—W. C. Dorrance, Crow Creek; Geo. S. Craig, Enterprise. Sheep—Stickney & German, Joseph; L. C. Johnson, Imnaha; J. H. Dobbin, Prairie Creek.

Anyone desiring information in regard to exhibits, speak to your nearest committeemen or write to J. D. Woodall, Enterprise.
