Amusement

BAND NEARS PERFECTION. "Wedding of the winds" by Hall is a beautiful waltz, dreamy and fascinating, and will be played in the concert to be given by the La Grande band on April 5.

MAN PLAYS A PART. While "mere man" does not exercise a very strong appeal to those who select illustration for the theatrical pages of the Sunday papers, he is still quite an essential to a strong, well-balanced play.

EVERYTHING NEW. Change in program is the keynote of the announcement from the Pastime Theatre today. Every vaudeville performer will have same thing new and the films will be of the best.

SCENIC'S ATTRACTION. Lovers of fun and frolic should not miss the opportunity of seeing the four part play that will be given at the Scenic tonight and tomorrow.

Purchasing real estate without an abstract rivals horse racing in "taking chances." There are dozens of ways in which your prospective investment might be affected—unsatisfied judgments, incomplete compliance with the laws, etc., all of which you can know nothing about unless you have an abstract drawn up by us.
