MISS ROBERTS ALWAYS GOOD

COMING ATTRACTION AT STEWARD WILL BE NOTABLE

Wherever Florence Roberts and Her Strong Supports Goes There is Satisfaction.

"The House of Boniface," the new play in which Florence Roberts will appear at the Steward on April 9, seems to have scored a really extraordinary success. In fact the word precedes this play is not merely pleasant and reassuring, but highly enthusiastic.

It is declared that Miss Roberts has had no vehicle in her career that has offered her such salient opportunities or which embodied a theme so daring and original. When it is said that the pivoted climax of the piece arises through a vital operation by a great surgeon upon the husband of the woman he (the surgeon) loves. Some idea of the tremendous dramatic power of the piece may be imagined.

Miss Roberts, in the role of the neglected wife of a brilliant English parliamentarian, has a part that suits to a T. her great gifts as an emotional actress. Her support is a very strong one, containing the names of Arthur Forrest, Thurlow Bergen, Kent Bosworth, Harry Gibbs, Ann Warington and Mary Bertrand.

LAND FOR SUGAR BEETS

Superintendent F. G. Taylor of the La Grande sugar factory and F. S. Bramwell were here last week and closed contracts for leases of land from J. Haas and A. Wade of Alder Slope, on which to make the test of sugar beet culture. Mr. Taylor stated the test would also be made on Prairie Creek land owned by J. H. Dobbin, and they also desired to lease one or two other fields on the slope. In all over 200 acres will be planted to beets.—Enterprise News-Record.
