Rev. C. E. Deal yesterday morning arose to the occasion that should find endorsement in every pulpit in the city, in requesting the ladies to remove their hats and in the manner in which it was cheerfully complied with proves the correctness of the position a lady maintained some time ago which was to the effect that a request from the pulpit would be readily complied with by the ladies; that they realized the justness of such a demand, but hesitated by appearing out of the ordinary or conspicuous until the request had been made.

Poor Fulton, once more he is confronted with protests from the Chinese, just as soon as his name is mentioned for ambassador. If this protest is founded on fact and the Chinese government openly objects to his coming to their country, his name will hardly be considered by the president in this connection.

"Just my luck" remarked a La Grande man who had spent the greater portion of his life waiting for lightning to strike him in the shape of a legacy, upon reading that all was to be put on the free list. He looked over his stock in the Ontario district and as he passed on he was heard to remark: "I do not suppose I will be able to sell this now until oil is actually struck. De-- there tariff agitators."

Portland is entering upon a municipal election and unless the opposition to Joseph Simon lays down on the start a lively campaign, centrom the voters of the metropolis Joe has been quite politically for several years, but his past experience is sufficient to predict that he has entered upon the race for the mayoralty with due appreciation to all its bearings.

Well, if an Eastern Oregon man cannot land the federal judgeship it might as well be Judge Bean as any we know of. His years of experience on the supreme bench of this state eminently fits him for promotion. The bar throughout the state will be well pleased with the appointment in case President Taft, so honors him.

It is rather amusing to see the least to read the complimentary editorial comments on the high character of the late Ethan Allen Hitchcock in the very same papers that formerly clamored for his retirement from the department of the In-this immediate vicinity in the real estate business just as soon as the irrigation project is assured. Those big holdings will be subdivided into small tracts and there will be buyers and there will be building and things doing generally.

SUMMONS.

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for Union County. Mrs. Stella Taylor, plaintiff vs. Porter R. Taylor, defendant.

To Porter R. Taylor, the above named defendant: In the name of the State of Oregon you are hereby required to appear and answer the complaint filed against you in the above entitled suit on or before the 21st day of May, 1909, and if you fail to so answer for want thereof, the plaintiff will apply to the Court for a decree dissolving the bonds of matrimony existing between the plaintiff and the defendant, and for the care and custody of the minor child of the plaintiff and defendant and for plaintiff's costs and disbursements in this suit.

This summons is published in the La Grande Weekly Observer, a newspaper of general circulation published in Union County, Ore., by order of the Hon. J. W. Knowels, the Judge of the above entitled Court, which order is dated the 7th day of April, 1909. The date of the first publication of this summons is the 9th day of April, 1909.

FREE TO YOU—MY SISTER Free to You and Every Sister Suffering from Woman's Ailments.

I am a woman. I know woman's sufferings. I have found the cure. I will mail, free of any charge, my home treatment with full instructions to any sufferer from woman's ailments. I want to tell all women about this cure—me, my reader, for yourself, your daughter, your mother, or your sister. I want to tell you how to cure yourselves at home without the help of a doctor. Men need understand woman's sufferings. What we women know from experience, we know better than any doctor. I know that my home treatment is safe and sure cure for Leucorrhoea or White Discharge, Uteral Displacement or Falling of the Uterus, Profuse, Scanty or Painful Periods, Ulcer of Ovarian Tumor, or Growth; also pains in head, back and bowels, bearing down feelings, nervousness, craving feeling up the spine, melancholy, desire to cry, hot flashes, weakness, kidney and bladder troubles where caused by weaknesses peculiar to our sex.

I want to send you a complete ten day's treatment at once, if at home, easily, quickly and surely. Remember, that it will cost you nothing to give the treatment a complete trial; and if you do not feel better after ten days, you can easily cure yourselves at home. Every woman should have it, and learn to this for herself. Then when the doctor says—"You must have an operation," you can decide for yourself. Thousands of women have cured themselves with my home remedy. It cures all old or young. To Mothers of Daughters, I will explain a simple home treatment which speedily and effectually cures Leucorrhoea, Green Stickness and Painful or Irregular Menstruation in young Ladies, Pimples and health always results from its use. Wherever you live, I can refer you to ladies of your own locality who know and will gladly tell any sufferer that this Home Treatment really cures all women's diseases, and makes women well, strong, plump and robust. Just send me your address, and the free ten day's treatment is yours, also the book. Write to-day, as you may not see this offer again. Address MRS. M. SUMMERS, Box H - - Notre Dame, Ind., U. S. A.
