NEAT SUM FOR PARK

Fifty-seven dollars were cleared at the park ball at the opening of the post-lenten season last evening and that sum has been added to the cash on hand with the treasurer. The amount is flattering as the expense accounts were somewhat heavy.
 Another pleasing feature that has encouraged the spirits of the promoters is that no effort was made to sell tickets prior to the ball and with the exception of a very few dollars, all were collected at the door. The promoters are elated and the guests were highly pleased. The evening was marked by a crowd that was not too immense for comfort yet large enough to give the occasion the color of a community affair.

NO TRACE OF BRITTON BOY

WALLA WALLA, April 12.—Robert Britton stated this afternoon that he had received no word from Tacoma regarding the finding of or any trace of his boy Cecil, who was lost at Toll Gate nearly three years ago. He read the dispatch regarding the matter, but beyond that said he had heard nothing and he will do nothing till he gets more definite information.
 "It may be a hoax, as have been the other clues," he said this afternoon, "so I do not know what I will do. There is always a chance though that some trace of the lad has been found. I hope that this works out favorably, but I have not much hope."
