OBSERVE ANNIVERSARY BY TWO PATRIOTIC ACTS

Striving to wind up for the Lincoln farm association this week. Chairman Mrs. Schilke and her committee have decided on Thursday the 15th as the day when all coupons now out and all new ones should be sent in that inventory may be taken. Thursday has been decided upon as that is the 44th anniversary of Lincoln's death.

Loyalty Should Shine.

On that day it is more than right that the city should make some display of patriotism by exhibiting flags or some other appropriate symbol of loyalty. By so doing some little act that will show esteem for the saviour of the nation and by sending a 25 cent subscription coupon to the committee, two appropriate things will have been accomplished—acts that are due the memory of the man in question.

A very pretty sketch of Abraham Lincoln is contained in the following, a part of the literature distributed in La Grande during the past few weeks:

By H. C. DEMING.

ABRAHAM LINCOLN'S work was finished when, unheralded and almost unattended, leading his little son by the hand, he walked into the streets of humiliated Richmond.

If, on that auspicious morn, the crowning benediction had descended on him, he might well have wished to die. What more could we ask for on earth? Assailed by the strongest conspiracy that ever threatened a nation's life, his triumph over it was complete and overwhelming, conquering liberty for a class and national existence for a people. Was not this honor enough for one man?

He had survived ridicule; he had outlived detraction and abuse; he had secured the commendation of the world for purity of purpose, constancy in disaster, clemency in triumph, and the praise even of his armed foes for gentleness and mercy. In times more troubled he had administered government with more ability than Carnot, and war with more success than Napoleon the Third. He had paled the glory of Hastings in preserving the empire, and had earned comparison with Hampden for self-command and rectitude of intention, while as an emancipator of a race he stood alone without a rival and without a parallel.

If fame had approached him with the laurels of a conqueror, if power had offered him a scepter, and ambition a crown, he would have scorned them all. He asked from men, he asked from God, but one culminating boon—peace, peace on the bloody waters and the blighted shore, but alas! Such a consummation was denied.

BEST PROGRAM YET.

The Pastime is certainly giving the people the worth of their money this week for there has not been such a strong bill in La Grande since vaudeville has been started by the theatres.

Graham and Norton, "The Singing Duo," treated the audiences last night to an exhibition of rare singing that cannot be excelled on the coast—in fact they are the equals of any singing team in vaudeville.

For difficult steps well executed, Francis and Stewart beat any team yet seen here and their baseball sketch in which they keep dancing while playing the game, is a novelty that brings down the house at every show.

Add to this, two excellent pictures and you have a show that is worth more than popular prices.

Manzanilla Remedy is put up in a tube with nozzle attached. May be applied directly to the affected parts. Guaranteed. Price 50c. Sold at Sutherland's Family drug store.

Best Treatment for Colds.

"Most ordinary colds will yield to the simplest treatment," says the Chicago Tribune, "moderative laxatives, hot foot baths, a free perspiration and an avoidance of exposure to cold and wet after treatment." While this treatment is simple, it requires considerable trouble, and the one adopting it must remain in doors for a day or two, or a fresh cold is almost sure to be contracted, and in many instances pneumonia follows. Is it not better to pin your faith to an old reliable preparation like Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, that is famous for its cures of colds and can always be depended upon? For saye by All Good Druggists.
