While in Utah he met a sister whom he had not seen for 16 years, and also had the pleasure of visiting his daughter who is attending the deaf mute school in Logan. He says that the school is a wonderful institution and the work which the blind students do is remarkable. One of the first remarks that Mr. Christensen made when he left the train was that "the trees look mighty good." He used to like the bare Utah hills, he said, but now he prefers the Oregon mountains to anything else in the line of scenery and the Grande Ronde valley climate to that of his former home.

The students will exert themselves to see that the sales in that store during the special features will accrue a fat sum.

Appointment to be Made.

The appointment of a successor will revolve on Governor Benson, but as La Grande and Eastern Oregon is already will be represented in the high court by Justices Alkine and King, it is not thought a man from this section of the State will be named.

Bean Has Long Service.

Aside from three successive terms on the supreme bench, he has had long service in circuit courts of the state. Several La Grande attorneys today expressed their satisfaction at the appointment.

SOCIETY.

Post-lenten card parties received a warm resurrection yesterday afternoon when Mesdames J. J. Carr, F. E. Moore and Jay Van Buren entertained at 500 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Carr. The home was elegantly decorated in daffodils and Oregon grape, the scheme being worked out with artistic effects. Art was also reflected in the table cards done in hand work by Mrs Carr. "April showers" was the theme of the cards.

The eleven tables were filled with players, Mrs Adolph Newlin winning first prize, Mrs. W. H. Bohnenkamp second, and Mrs. J. M. Berry third. The prizes were works of art, similar in pattern to the table cards. The social event came to an end with an elaborate two-course luncheon.
