AMICABLE RELATIONS

Some interesting games of baseball will be played with between Cove and Elgin this year and game next Sunday at Cove promises to be up to the high standard of the last Sunday game.

"The ball game Sunday between Cove and Elgin on the Elgin diamond resulted in a shutout for the Elgin team. Their was nothing doing on either side until the 4th inning when Cove slipped one man over the plate, followed by two more in the 5th, and one in the 6th, the balance of the game being just one-two-three and out.

It being the first game of the season on Elgin grounds, both the teams and about two hundred rooters were escorted to the grounds by Elgin's noted band. This game without any exception was the best exhibition of amateur ball ever played in Eastern Oregon.

Neither pitcher walked a man, and the Umpire Lee Tuttle, giving both teams a square deal. Pitcher Smith of Cove allowed but one hit, and was credited with eight strikeouts. The final score being 4 to 0 in favor of Cove.
