PHARAOH'S DAUGHTER

A strange illusion that created a great sensation at Luna Park and Coney Island last summer. C. W. Parker had a great improvement on the original and calls this attraction his pet show. The stage setting and pantomime accompanying the illusion are remarkably well conceived to accompany the transformation and to bring out the idea of Nile of Ancient Egypt. In addition to Pharaoh's Daughter many beautiful electrical dances are presented in a unique manner.

MUSICAL COMEDY COMING TO THE STEWARD WEDNESDAY

The great musical comedy success of New York entitled "A Bell Boy" will be the attraction at the Steward Opera House, Wednesday evening, April 21, with the clever young comedian Johnny Gavin and the dainty Ella Gavin as the principals. A large number of solo actors and a chorus that can sing and dance.

"A Bell Boy" is no farce comedy nor is it a burlesque, but it is a high class clean cut musical comedy full of funny situations, bright dialogue, sparkling lyrics and music that is tuneful, catchy, easily remembered and more easily whistled, the kind that everyone wants to hear. Everything is new and up-to-date and each solo, duet, quartette and concerted number is given with a verve and a vim that shows the best and most artistic stage management.

Johnny Gavin himself is one of those pleasing mannered boys bubbling over with ginger, who sings, dances and keeps things on the go very much as does his more famous contemporary Geo. M. Cohan, although he at no time imitates him.

Ella Gavin, the soubrette with "A Bell Boy" is a most handsome as well as a talented actress. She has in this production the best opportunity of her entire artistic career and makes the most of it. Set sale for the engagement will open Tuesday 10 A. M. at Van Buren's.

Special prices $1.00, .75, .50 and children .25.

COVE WON AGAIN.

COVE, April 19.—(Special)—In a closely played game, Cove wormed out a victory over Elgin yesterday, score 6 to 5. Practically all the scores were made on errors, but Elgin was unfortunate at the last and lost the game. Batteries—Cove, Smith and Gibson; Elgin—Christiansen and Thomas.
