EVENING OF MIRTH.

Woodmen of America Have Big Jubilee at Their Hall.

The joint social gathering of the Modern Woodmen and the Royal Neighbors last night was a huge success from every standpoint. Early in the evening they gathered, and sharply at the hour set by the program committee Fred B. Currey, M. C., began his opening address. In words of felicity and good cheer he bade every one welcome, congratulated every member of the organizations present upon their choice of a fraternal benefit and insurance society, and calling attention to the size of the order as proof of its popularity, and the substantial benefits he gained by holding a membership, he urged his hearers to belong, not only for the insurance feature, but in addition to the prompt payment of dues, to attend all meetings whenever possible, in order to gain the benefits of social intercourse with such a fine body of men as the Woodmen are.

Mrs. Sampson, for the Royal Neighbors, responded to Mr. Currey's speech, and dwelt upon the noble work of the ladies' organization, and upon their loyalty to their brothers. Her address aroused much enthusiasm among her hearers. The program with a few slight changes was rendered as printed in yesterday's Observer.

One of the most enjoyable features of the evening was the selling of the supper baskets and their delicious contents, brought by the ladies. Martin Larsen acted as auctioneer. With the basket supper were served tea, cream and coffee.

The program as carried out, follows:

Best Treatment for Colds.
"Most ordinary colds will yield to the simplest treatment," says the Chicago Tribune, "moderate laxatives, hot foot baths, a free perspiration and an avoidance of exposure to cold and wet offer treatment." While this treatment is simple, it requires considerable trouble, and the one adopting it must remain in doors for a day or two, or a fresh cold is almost sure to be contracted, and in many instances pneumonia follows. Is it not better to pin your faith to an old reliable preparation like Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, that is famous for its cures or colds and can always be depended upon? For say by All Good Druggists.

An Ideal Cough Medicine.
"As an ideal cough medicine I regard Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in a class by itself," says Dr. R. A. Wilshire, of Gwynnville, Ind. "I take great pleasure in testifying to the results of Chamberlain's Cough medicine. In fact, I know of no other preparation that meets so fully the expectations of the most exacting in cases of croup and coughs of children. It soothes the inflamed throat, breaks up the phlegm, and restores the system to its normal condition. It is safe, pleasant and efficacious remedy proved by the Board of Trustees of the Joseph Methodist Episcopal church. The right to reject any and
