BELL BOY HAS ARRIVED

THE DALLES CHRONICLE CALLS IT GOOD HOPE

Musical Company Plays to Pleased Crowd at Pendleton Last Night And Is Here For Tonight.

"The Bell Boy" is here. The troupe that is making a whirlwind tour of Oregon at popular prices will play at the Steward tonight, having pleased a full house in Pendleton last night. This afternoon saw a marked increase in the sale of tickets, and before the curtain goes up it is more than likely that nearly all of the seats will be sold. The Dalles Chronicle gives this conscientious writeup of the show which played there two night ago:

Johnny and Ella Galvin and company presented "A Bell Boy" at the Vogt theatre to a small house last night. The show could not be called a musical comedy or a burlesque and a farce comedy would probably be the proper thing to call it. At any rate there was something doing from one end of the performance to the other and all, who witnessed the play yesterday evening, appeared to get their money's worth. Many specialties were introduced, one of which made a decided hit. This specialty was the dancing done by William Anger and William Hanley and it is doubtful if better work in this line was ever seen on the local stage. The members of the "Bell Boy" company surely earn their money for every one of them certainly does some tall bustling. Seen one minute in the chorus, the same actor or actress last night was seen a minute later portraying one of the principal roles and shortly afterwards, with a different make-up, would be before the foot lights in a specialty. While the singing and acting was by no means above the average, the show goes with a vim and a snap which maintains the unflagging interest of the spectators.

ORDER NEW HORNS.

Stock up in Instruments And Take Measures For Suits.
Four new instruments, three orchestra-band horns and a monster tuba, were ordered by wire for the band yesterday afternoon. The new horns will be here in time to be used during the carnival. The boys are being measured today for the new uniforms.

DIVORCE DENIED.

Though Both Willing Neither of Simmons' Gain Point.
Portland dispatches say that neither Emma Simmons nor her husband, G. D. Simmons was granted a divorce in the courts yesterday. Mrs. Simmons alleges desertion and Simmons brought cross complaint, alleging that his wife has tricked him out of the money he got in a damage suit against the O. R. & N. some years ago. "Spider" Anderson, formerly a popular barber of this city, was called as a witness to testify as to Simmons character.

There is no need of internal treatment in any case of muscular or chronic rheumatism, and more than nine out of every ten cases of the disease are of one or the other of these varieties. When there is no fever and little (if any) swelling, you may know that it is only necessary to apply Chamberlain's Liniment freely to get quick relief. Try it. For sale by All Good Druggists.
