IMPORTANT RULING.

La Grande Land Office Settles Dispute Between Umatilla Men.

Through a decision just given by the register and receiver of the land office at La Grande a signal victory has been won by the entrymen who filed on grazing land formerly included under the Umatilla reservation, says the Pendleton E. O.

The decision given was in the case of the government versus William Roberts. However the Roberts case is but one out of 30 or 40 similar cases and in each case the principal point at issue is the same.

This point is whether or not an entryman must show that he has used the land for grazing purposes. In the past the department has held that entrymen must make such a showing and the cases against Roberts et al were based on the allegation that the entrymen were not using the land themselves.

But under the decision given by Register Bramwell and Receiver Eberhardt it is held that the entry-man has done sufficient in showing that the land involved is grazing land, regardless of whether or not he has used it as such.

SPECIAL SCENIC ATTRACTION.

A special feature is slated for the scenic this evening when the King sisters will be put on as an addition to the team. This team is the youngest attraction on the Panatagos circuit, can be seen in La Grande tonight. These sisters are five and six years old, but for all that are heralded as fine attractions. In addition to this special feature, there will be the regular teams who put on entire changes. The blossoms will introduce some thing catchy, "The Italian Doll Vender." This is full of music and mirth.

The Kingsburys will add new variety to their features, presenting again "The German Band." All these, added to the moving pictures, make a strikingly clever program. "Moscow covered with Snow" is the name of a very interesting picture to be shown for the first time tonight.

TOOTHsome MENU.

The menu for the tamale supper given by the ladies of St. Peter's guld tomorrow evening at the residence of Mrs. James Russell, will consist of chicken tamales, Boston brown bread & butter, Dill pickles and good coffee, all for twenty five cents. Proceeds go toward the guld hall building fund.

AID FROM ELGIN.

Publicity Manager Visits Elgin Club This Evening.

Publicity Manager F. P. Curry is in Elgin today, and tonight will meet the Commercial club of that city. The prime motive for his visit to Elgin is to enlist financial aid and moral support for the Union county float that is to be put into the Rose Carnival parade at Portland in June. He will take advantage of the meeting to create among the members a greater degree of cooperation between the two clubs. He will return tomorrow.

SCORES MAKE HIT.

Prompt Delivery of Two Coast League is Delight to Fans.

Placing Northwest and Pacific Coast league baseball scores before La Grande fans an hour after the games are played is meeting with great favor. The Observer has added the Northwest scores to those already secured and every evening the scores can be ascertained at the usual places. Prompt transmission and delivery has made possible to post the scores here between 5:30 and 6 o'clock every evening.
