and threatens to disown Tom if he does not give Daisy up. In order to get around his father and still be near Daisy he disguises himself like a photograph he finds in the garden which turns out to be a picture of twin brothers who shortly come on the scene. The complications arising from the mixed identity of the three twins furnish one of the most laughable plots ever attempted in musical comedy.

ELGIN BILLED

Publicity manager Currey, who seems to be a second edition of Portland's Tom Richardson, and Mr. Lake, of the Parker Shows company, returned today from Elgin where they went yesterday. Mr. Currey to work for Union county and Mr. Lake for the success of the carnival. Fred says that Mr. Lake has billed Elgin as for a great circus, and that the Elgin people are coming over to spend the week.

The Elgin Commercial club have not definitely decided as to what part they will take in the preparation of the float for the Portland rose show, but at their next meeting they will take the matter up and let the La Grande Commercial club know what they can do.

The spirit of "help along," according to the returned visitors, is very strong, who, by the way report a most cordial reception, and grows with every week. Elgin is coming to the front, not merely as a lumber town or a forwarding station, but as a place to live.

UNION MEET IS REVIVED

MEDALS FOR WINNERS IN ALL THE EVENTS

County Meet Again in Limelight And it is Evident That One Will be Held May First at Union.

A county track and field meet is assured for Union on May First, according to the latest advices from Cove and Union. That La Grande will send a delegation is also practically decided upon.

To Union and Cove, the date agreed upon, is very satisfactory, but to La Grande it is squarely the reverse. However, valuable training will result for the La Grande squad. La Grande's chief objection to May first is the nearness to the Walla Walla meet and it will tax the endurance of the local squad to a severe degree to participate Saturday, and the following Thursday and Friday go into the Walla Walla preliminaries and final results. Officials will be chosen early next week for the union meet, and all necessary arrangements made. La Grande will enter as many as it sees fit in each event, and while paying its own expenses to Union will be given medals for each place taken.

This seems to be the final decision coming out of the recent decisions and retractions relative to this meet.

COVE HERE SATURDAY.

Locals Must Win to be in The Championship Class Again.

Cove's high school baseball team is coming here Saturday to give another whirl at the La Grande team. The locals lost last Saturday and they must win next Saturday or lose the championship of the county. Since the Saturday game, practice has been revived considerable and many rooters and fans who are close to conditions are confident of victory Saturday and again when the final rubber is played, at some later date.

POPULAR COMPANY IS HERE AGAIN TONIGHT

WILL PRESENT "THE MAN QUESTION" TONIGHT

Company That Sprung Surprises Last Evening is Stated to Appear Again at The Steward Tonight.

The bill that will be presented by Johnny and Ella Galvin at the Steward Opera House tonight will be one of New York's latest musical comedy successes entitled "The Man Question." The company carries two complete productions and tonight's bill is guaranteed to be up to a standard of "A Bell Boy" and any other $1.50 show on the road.

The action of the play takes place in London where young Tom Moreland falls in love with the companion of his father's ward. Old General Moreland objects very strongly to this
